The corporate governance of Taiheiyo Cement Corporation (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The mission of the Taiheiyo Cement Group is to contribute to social infrastructure development by providing solutions that are environmentally efficient, enhance our competitive position and bring value to our stakeholders. Based on this mission, the Company will, in accordance with the provisions of the “Taiheiyo Cement Corporation Basic Policy on Corporate Governance,” strive to improve corporate governance by ensuring the separation of the management’s decision-making and supervisory functions from business execution to satisfy the expectations of stakeholders including stockholders and to realize sustainable growth and increase of its corporate value over the medium to long term.

The “Taiheiyo Cement Corporation Basic Policy on Corporate Governance” was established based on a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company and is published on the website of the Company in its entirety.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

[Supplementary Principle 4.2.1 Management compensation as an incentive]

Compensation of internal directors and executive officers of the Company consists of fixed compensation as a consideration for the execution of duties and variable compensation that is linked to the financial performance of the Company for the relevant single fiscal year. As such, it is not linked to medium- to long-term results. However, the Company believes that the officers’ shareholding association, which is the arrangement under which officers of the Company share common interests with the Company’s stockholders through the holding of the Company’s own shares, is functioning as an incentive for sustainable growth and the increase of the corporate value of the Company over the medium to long term.

In the future, the Company will consider the introduction of a more effective and sound method to provide the senior management with incentives for sustainable growth as necessary.

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Appropriate involvement/advice of independent outside directors through the establishment of an optional advisory committee]

The number of independent outside directors of the Company is two, which is less than a majority of the Board of Directors. However, the system is sufficient to ensure that the Board of Directors performs its supervisory function properly and fulfills its accountability as, for example, each of the independent outside directors states opinions that are appropriate and to the point based on their extensive experience and broad knowledge.

Under this system, candidates for a director of the Company are nominated appropriately by the Board of Directors, which includes outside directors, after due deliberation. The amount of compensation of directors is determined appropriately by the Board of Directors, which includes outside directors, so as not to exceed the total amount approved by the General Meeting of Stockholders.

Therefore, as the independence and the objectivity of the functions of the Board of Directors are adequately secured by the current mechanism, the Company believes that the establishment of an optional advisory committee is unnecessary.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

The Pension Committee regularly monitors the investment status of the plan assets and reviews the portfolio composition of the plan assets as necessary.

(Translation)

As stipulated in Article 19 (Evaluation of the Overall Effectiveness of the Board of Directors) of the “Taiheiyo Cement Corporation Basic Policy on Corporate Governance,” the Company is supposed to conduct the analysis and evaluation of the overall effectiveness of the Board of Directors each year.

Assessment for FY2019, following the previous fiscal year, was implemented through a questionnaire format for self-evaluation of all Directors, and analysis and assessment were executed by the Chairperson of the Board and Outside Directors based on the results. In addition, upon reporting the contents of analysis and assessment to the Board of Directors, the improvements as compared to the previous year and future issues were deliberated and confirmed.

As a result, the overall assessment for FY2019 resulted in better outcome and therefore it was evaluated that the Board of Directors of the Company was generally appropriately managed and that the overall effectiveness of the Board of Directors was secured. With regard to the composition of the Board of Directors, which was presented as a point for improvement over the medium term in the previous assessment, the Company has been taking measures to improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors, which include a reduction in the number of Directors intended to improve management supervisory functions and expedite decision-making. In the future, based on the results of assessment of effectiveness and a wide diversity opinions come up with by each Director, the Company will work to make required improvements with the intent of further improvement of the functions of the Board of Directors.

| The upper limits of compensation for directors and corporate auditors are separately set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Stockholders. The date of resolution of the General Meeting of Stockholders on the compensation for directors is June 27, 2007, and that on the compensation for corporate auditors is June 29, 2000. The content of the resolution of the General Meeting of Stockholders on the compensation for directors is such that the amount shall be not more than 100 million yen per month, and the content of the resolution on the compensation for corporate auditors is such that the amount shall be not more than 13 million yen per month. The amounts of compensation of individual corporate auditors are determined by consultation among corporate auditors. The compensation plan for directors (excluding outside directors) consists of fixed compensation and performance-linked compensation whereas the compensation plans for outside directors and corporate auditors consist only of fixed compensation. The amounts of fixed compensation are determined according to the rank of position. Specifically, the amount of the performance-linked compensation of directors (excluding outside directors) is calculated by multiplying the amount calculated as profit attributable to owners of parent for the current fiscal year times 1% (an upper limit of 400 million yen) by the multiplier assigned to each position, which is paid starting from July in the fiscal year following the end of the current fiscal year. However, this amount can be reduced in consideration of the financial performance of the Company or other circumstances. In principle, performance-linked compensation is not paid if the amount of annual dividend for the current fiscal year is less than 30 yen per share. Performance-linked compensation makes up 37% of the total compensation for FY2019. Profit attributable to owners of parent was chosen as an indicator with an aim to strengthen the link between the compensation and shareholders' benefit. The actual result of profit attributable to owners of parent for FY2018, which serves as a basis for calculating the performance-linked compensation for FY2019, was 43.4 billion yen. |

In these Regulations, the Company defines the corporate information for which disclosure is required under the “Securities Listing Regulations” as material information. The outline of the timely disclosure system for material information is as follows:

i) Timely disclosure system and roles

A. Site managers, upon exposure to potentially material information concerning the business site for which they are responsible, prepare a written information disclosure application and submit it to the officer in charge immediately after obtaining confirmation from the General Manager of the General Affairs Department.

B. Upon receipt of the written information disclosure application, the officer in charge determines whether the information in question is material information in accordance with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and the Securities Listing Regulations. If the information is determined to be material, the procedures for deliberation and decision on disclosure items outlined in C. below are followed.

C. The deliberation and decision of the disclosure items are carried out by the Executive Committee, the Board of Directors, or the officer in charge of the General Affairs Department, as appropriate, in accordance with the category of decision-making bodies responsible for the matter in question as prescribed in the “Approval Request/Reporting Standards,” from the perspectives of legal compliance, accuracy, and appropriateness. In this case, the General Manager of the General Affairs Department promptly notifies the Executive Committee members of the decision.

D. The General Affairs Department is responsible for information disclosure. After the disclosure details of material information are determined based on C. above, the General Affairs Department disclose the information to the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the Fukuoka Stock Exchange without delay and disclose it also to the appropriate mass media without delay after considering presentation of the disclosure details.
