(After Correction)

Correction of Graph

Corrections have been made on the lines of “monotaro.com: New Customer” and of “monotaro.com: Existing Customer” in the graph as follows.

- The misplaced graph legends have been corrected (the parts enclosed by the dotted line).
- The colors of the lines for actual results (solid line) up to 2019LH and the lines for plans (dotted line) from 2019LH to 2020FH have been corrected from green to red and from red to green respectively.
- The arrows indicating the changes in actual results from the plan for 2020FH have been corrected (the part enclosed by the dotted line).

Notes Replaced and Added

The following notes have been replaced and added to clarify the difference between the graph in “Presentation Material for Q2, 2020” and the similar graphs in the Presentation Materials disclosed in the past.

- Replaced “Note 1” with the following.
- Added following “Note 3.”
  - * Note 1: Half year (first half and latter half) contribution of every channel to total sales growth from previous year is organized and shown.
  - * Note 3: “monotaro.com: New Customer” indicates contribution of sales from customers acquired each half year, and “monotaro.com: Existing Customer” indicates contribution of sales from customers acquired before corresponding half year. Therefore, sales from customers acquired in first half are included in latter half as sales of “monotaro.com: Existing Customer” not as sales of “monotaro.com: New Customer” (definitions of new customer in “Sales Growth (Service Channel Contribution)” on p.27 of “Presentation Material for FY2019 Results” and on p.26 of “Presentation Material for Q1, 2020” are fiscal year base, which are different from definition of new customer on this page).

Corrected “Presentation Material for Q2, 2020” is listed on MonotaRO’s site.
