[Reasons for not putting each principle of the Corporate Governance Code into practice]

The Company has applied each of the basic principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Releases based on Corporate Governance Code principles]

- Principle 1-4 (Cross-Shareholdings)
- Basic Policy Regarding Cross-Shareholdings
   From the perspective of avoiding risk from share price fluctuations and improving capital efficiency, the Company does not hold listed shares except in cases where it is necessary for business or financial transactional relationships with the investee or collaboration with the Company.
- 2. Basic Policy/Standards of Verification

The Board periodically verifies the appropriateness of holding individual cross-shareholdings. Following consideration of the business advantages and strategic significance in maintaining relationships, expanding transactions and creating synergies, and the general verification of whether the benefits and risks pertaining to such shareholdings correspond to the Company's cost of capital, cross-held shares judged as unnecessary to hold will be prepared for sale after taking into consideration the status of the cross-shareholders, etc.

As a result of verification, some cross-held shares deemed as unnecessary to hold has been sold.

3. Basic Policy on Exercising Voting Rights

The Company will make appropriate decisions regarding the exercise of voting rights in corporations forming cross-shareholdings by comprehensively considering whether or not the details of resolution items contribute to enhancing the value of said corporation in which shares are held, as well as the status of said corporation's corporate governance structures, and compliance systems etc.

- Principle 1-7 (Related Party Transactions)
  - Competitive transactions or conflict of interest transactions by directors: to prevent a loss of profit by the Company, in accordance with Japan's Companies Act, such matters are resolved by the Board as stipulated in the Board of Regulations. Also, the regulations stipulate that the Board must be promptly notified after said transactions based on Board resolutions take place.
  - Based on the guidelines of the appropriate corporate accounting standards, the Company justifies the importance of transactions with related parties and confirms the existence of such transactions, notifies the Board, then describes in the annual securities report.
- Principle 2-6 (Functions as the Asset Owner of Company Pension Fund)
   While the Company has no company pension fund system, it has introduced an enterprise type defined contribution pension system for asset formation of employees.
   Educational training concerning the system and asset formation is offered to qualified employees.
- Principle 3-1 (Fullness of Information Disclosures)
- PERSOL Group 's aims (corporate philosophy etc.), business strategy, & business plans
  We recognize the increasing social expectations and responsibilities for our Group in a rapidly changing work environment associated with longer careers due to the advent of 100-year lifespans and work style changes stemming from advances in technology and artificial intelligence.

Under these circumstances, to fulfill our Group Vision, "Work and Smile," we have designed a cycle of corporate activity and social contribution, which forms a value creation story looking ahead to 2030.

We will determine our commitments to a changing society, refine the sources of value creation we have amassed, and use these to drive growth in our business activities.

As a consequence, we will enhance both our social and economic values to create new value. At the same time, we will contribute to achievement of the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

The focus of our Group Medium-term Business Plan 2023, which covers the first three years leading to 2030, is on refining our businesses and reinforcing our management base with a view to further growth. By fulfilling our "Work and Smile" vision, we will provide value to society.

For further details on our Medium-term Management Plan, please see our website: https://www.persol-group.co.jp/en/ir/strategy/index.html

- Fundamental approach to corporate governance and basic policies according to each of the respective principles of this code

Described in "1. Basic Approach" in "I. Basic approach to corporate governance, capital structure, corporate attributes, and other basic information" at the opening of this report.

Policy and procedure related to decisions regarding compensation of the Group Senior Management/Directors made by the Board

Described in "II. Status of corporate management structures that relate to the exercise and control of the Company management decision making authorities, and other corporate governance systems. Of "1. Matters relating to organizational configuration/organizational management etc." under "II. Corporate management structures and other corporate governance systems related to management decision-making, execution, and supervision, described in "Disclosure of decision-making policy on compensation amounts and calculation methods" under "Director Compensation."

4. Policies and procedures when appointing/dismissing the Group Senior Management members and in nominations of Director candidates by the Board.

As stated in "Chapter 5. Composition of the Board (5-2. Nomination of Directors)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline

With respect to dismissal, in the event that a fraudulent act, breach of trust and other acts that may cause doubts corresponding to them in the execution of duty of a Director, the Nomination and Compensation Committee, the Supervisory Committee, and the Board will deliberate the appropriateness of submitting an agenda item concerning the dismissal of the relevant Director to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

5. The Board approaches to appointing/dismissing the Group Senior Management members and nominating Director candidates

As stated in Chapter 4. Responsibilities of Directors (4-1. Responsibilities of Directors, 4-2. Expectations of Independent Director)" and "Chapter 5. Composition of the Board (5-1. Composition of the Board, 5-2. Nomination of Directors)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline

The reasons for nominating all Director candidates are outlined in the General Meeting of Shareholders convocation notice.

Corporate Governance

 Supplementary Principle 4-1-1 (Scope of delegation of authority to executive management)

As stated in "Chapter 3 (3-1. Roles of the Board)" and "Chapter 8. Management Structure (8-1. Management Structure, 8-2. Duties of the CEO)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline

(https://www.persol-group.co.jp/images/corporate/pdf/E_corporate_governance_guidel ine_200401.pdf).

- Supplementary Principle 4-3-2 (Selection of CEO)
  Other than "Chapter 5 (5-2. Nomination of Directors)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline(https://www.persol-group.co.jp/images/corporate/pdf/E_corporate_governance_guideline_200401.pdf), the Company sets the following qualifications for CEO. The Board appoints CEO by a resolution of the Board following the advice/recommendations of the Nomination and Compensation Committee.
  - (1) Possesses wide-ranging knowledge and insight for providing guidance for multiple businesses and functions;
  - (2) Is capable of acting in good faith and maintaining a good balance with all stakeholders; and
  - (3) Is capable of bringing about innovations through excellent leadership towards the realization of the PERSOL Group vision.
- Supplementary Principle 4-3-3 (Dismissal of CEO)
   With respect to dismissal of CEO, in the event that there is an act which may cause doubts of falling under any of the following items of dismissal criteria, the Nomination/Compensation and the Board shall conduct deliberations immediately.

- There is an act which may cause suspicion of fraudulent and unjust act or breach of trust;
- (2) Decided as unqualified as CEO by violations of the Companies Act and other related laws and ordinances; or
- (3) Judged that execution of duties or achievements are insufficient, and that keeping the person in the position of CEO is inappropriate.
- Principle 4-9 (Standards for judging independence and qualifications of Independent Director)

The Company has established the Independence Criteria for External Directors. In cases where outside directors do not fall under any of the following, the Company believes that such outside directors have independence from the Company. The criteria for the independence of outside directors is disclosed in the Notice of Convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Annual Securities Report.

- Supplementary Principle 4-11-1 (Overall approach to the Board)
   As stated in "Chapter 5. Composition of the Board (5-1. Composition of the Board)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline
   (https://www.persol-group.co.jp/images/corporate/pdf/E_corporate_governance_guideline_200401.pdf).
- Supplementary Principle 4-11-2 (Disclosure of Directors concurrently serving in positions at other companies)

The status of PHD Directors and candidates who concurrently serve in other important positions is disclosed every year in the General Meeting of Shareholders convocation notice and the financial statements.

- Supplementary Principle 4-11-3 (Board Effectiveness Evaluation)
- 1. Details of implementation

To further improve the functioning of the Board, the Company annually evaluates the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, and discloses a summary of its methods and results.

In this fiscal year, the Company conducted a questionnaire survey of all directors and discussed twice at the Board the issues identified based on the results of the survey and each director's self-assessment, referring to the opinions of an external third-party advisor.

- 2. Results Summary of the Analysis and Evaluation of Effectiveness
  - (1) The Board fulfills its roles and responsibilities, including discussing corporate strategy and other major directions, creating an environment that supports appropriate risk-taking by senior management, providing effective oversight of management and directors from an independent and objective perspective, and establishing appropriate internal control and risk management system.
  - (2) In fulfilling its roles and responsibilities under (1) above, the Board materials are distributed well in advance of the meeting dates. In addition, the issues and objections discussed at the Management Committee are shared at the Board. These ensure for clear, free, vigorous and constructive discussions to take place.
  - (3) On the other hand, the Board recognizes that it is necessary to monitor progress based on specific management goals (including management indicators) and scenarios/implementation plans for the achieving management goals, as a precondition for oversight, in order to enhance the effectiveness of the Board's oversight of management. The Board also recognizes that it is necessary to secure sufficient time for discussion of important agenda items to enhance the deliberations of the Board by providing pre-briefings of agenda items and building an information base that enables the Board to obtain sufficient background information prior to the discussion.

The Board will continue to improve its effectiveness based on the results of the evaluation.

- Supplementary principle 4-14-2 (Training policy for Directors)
  Directors are selected from amongst individuals who possess a broad knowledge of business/finance/organizations etc. Basic information (company outline, management strategy, financial strategy, priority audit items etc.) is shared with Directors when a Director is appointed. Furthermore, opportunities are provided to Directors to deepen their views by inviting external lecturers to talk on corporate governance etc.
  This will continue to occur in future.
- Principle 5-1 (Policy on constructive dialogues with shareholders)
   As stated in "Chapter 9. Relationships with Stakeholders including Shareholders (9-1.
   Securing the Rights and Equality of Shareholders, 9-2. Dialogues with Shareholders, 9-3. Related Party Transactions, 9-4. Appropriate Cooperation with Stakeholders Other Than Shareholders)" and "Chapter 10. Appropriate Information Disclosure (10-1.

Information Disclosure Policy)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline (https://www.persol-group.co.jp/images/corporate/pdf/E_corporate_governance_guideline_200401.pdf).

Matters pertaining to the independent status of these Directors and employees from executive directors

The Company has assigned employees to exclusively support the work of the Supervisory Committee. The authority to supervise these employees on a daily basis rests with the Supervisory Committee. Support employees do not take orders from anyone other than Directors who are members of the Supervisory Committee. Furthermore, it is stipulated that reassignment, performance reviews, and disciplinary punishment etc. of said employees shall take place only with the consent of the Supervisory Committee.

Status of coordination between the Supervisory Committee, external auditors, and internal audit departments

When external auditors perform audits of financial statements, quarterly reviews, and audits of internal controls, the external auditors are required to report the results to the Supervisory Committee, each time. Moreover, the Supervisory Committee and external auditors plan to regularly exchange opinions, and the Supervisory Committee accompanies external auditors on audits and makes requests for explanations as required. Internal Audit Departments & Stakeholders: The Audit Department is established under direct control of the Representative Director, President and CEO. This department audits the entire Group from the perspective of legitimacy of executing business operations and compliance with laws and ordinances. Moreover, systems are being established where internal audit departments can report appropriately important matters to the Supervisory Committee and where the Supervisory Committee can provide specific instructions to internal audit departments as required in order to conduct effective audits.

Notes:

- One Director who resigned the Director who is not Supervisory Committee Member and was inaugurated as the Director who is Supervisory Committee Member during the fiscal year is included in the number of eligible executives noted above.
- 2) One External Director is not included in the number of eligible executives noted above as he/she receives no compensation.
- 3) The target and actual for FY2019 bonus are as follows. Regarding financial measures, consolidated net sales target was 940 billion yen, actual was 925.8 billion yen, consolidated operating income target was 42.5 billion yen, actual was 44.1 billion yen. the level of achievement was averaged 100%. Regarding non-financial measures, targets for employee satisfaction and risk monitoring were individually set and almost achieved. In addition, individual issues were set and worked to improve business performance and corporate value. As a result, the payout coefficient for bonuses paid to each director of the Company was 80% to 106%.

- 4) Share-based compensation includes the provision for share-based compensation for directors and the reversal of provision for share-based compensation for directors reported for the fiscal year as share-based compensation payable to five Directors (excluding External Directors) who are not Supervisory Committee members. In addition, the amount of share-based compensation is for the three fiscal years starting from FY 2017 and is the amount calculated according to the level of achievement of the targets of financial measures and non-financial measures, minus the allowance for share-based compensation in previous years.
- 5) The target and actual for performance-linked medium- to long-term incentive Compensation (Performance Share) among Share-based Compensation are as follows. Regarding financial measures, consolidated net sales target was 750 billion yen, actual was 970.5 billion yen, consolidated operating income target was 45 billion yen, actual was 39 billion-yen, ROE target was 10%, actual was 5%. Regarding non-financial measures, targets for employee satisfaction, brand recognition and risk monitoring were individually set and almost achieved. As a result, the payout coefficient for performance-linked medium- to long-term incentive Compensation (Performance Share) to each director of the Company was 111%.

Other matters

The founder Ms. Yoshiko Shinohara serves as "Chairman Emeritus", an emeritus rank. Ms. Shinohara no longer participate in the management of the Company.

2. Matters relating to functions: performance of tasks, audits/supervision, nominations, and compensation decision-making etc. (overview of existing corporate governance system)

- 1. Overview of corporate governance system Based on the corporate governance principles stated in this Chapter, the Company has adopted the form of organizational structure of "Company with Supervisory Committee" under the Japanese Companies Act. Furthermore, for the purpose of complementing the function of the Board, the Company has established a voluntary Nomination and Compensation committee to enhance transparency and objectivity concerning decisions on the nomination and compensation of the directors and the Group Senior Management.
- 2. Overview of systems to perform tasks and operational status

< Board >

The Board is responsible for the oversight of management and its main roles and responsibilities are to set the basic management policy, oversee the Group Senior Management, and secure the establishment and operation of appropriate internal control systems. For the purpose of enabling management to make timely, flexible and decisive decisions, management decisions other than those reserved for the Board by the Companies Act shall be delegated, in principle, to the CEO. Provided, however, that the decisions on the execution of important operations set forth in the Regulations for the Board shall be made by the Board.

Based on a governance policy of separating management oversight and execution, and further strengthening the supervisory function of the Board of Directors, as well as accelerating decision-making, the Board has been composed of six Directors who are not Supervisory Committee Members (three of whom are Independent Directors) and three Directors who are Supervisory Committee Members (two of whom are Independent Directors), and the ratio of Independent Directors is at least one-half of the total following the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2020.

<Headquarters Management Committee>

The Company adopts the Executive Officer system with the purpose of separating the oversight and management and clarifying where management responsibility lies.

In addition, Headquarters Management Committee (hereinunder, "HMC") is established to assist the CEO in making decisions on the group's basic management policy and important operations. The decisions on the execution of important operations delegated to the CEO by the Board shall be decided by the CEO on the condition that the HMC has made an affirmative resolution. Based on the concept that the members of the HMC (hereinunder, "the HMC members") shall be the persons who assume the significant decisions on the execution of important operations delegated by the Board and comprehensive roles as members of the senior management of the group, a proposal for the nomination of a HMC members shall be prepared by the CEO from among the executive officers, and shall be approved at the Board upon deliberation at the Nomination and Compensation Committee. The Company has also established four committees (Investment Committee, Risk Management Committee, Human Resources Committee, and Technology Committee) under HMC to improve the effectiveness of the Group's internal control system.

The Investment Committee deliberates on important matters related to the Group's overall investment and aims to raise the Group's organizational knowledge of a series of knowledge related to investment promotion.

The Risk Management Committee deliberates on the overall risk management of the Group.

The Human Resources Committee deliberates on the Group's human resources strategy and succession planning for key talent. The Technology Committee deliberates on key issues concerning the Group's technology strategy and related management resources. Each of the four committees is accountable to HMC and is positioned to supplement and strengthen its functions. <Supervisory Committee> The roles of the Supervisory Committee include securing the soundness of companies toward the increase of sustainable corporate value, acting for the common interests of the Company and shareholders while performing the following duties: □ Oversight of the execution of duties of the directors and the preparation of audit reports ☐ Decision on the details of the agenda concerning appointment, dismissal and refusal of reappointment of an external auditor ☐ Decision on the opinion of the Supervisory Committee concerning appointment, dismissal, resignation or compensation of the directors (excluding directors who are the Supervisory Committee members) The Supervisory Committee may give specific instructions to the internal audit division, as necessary, for the purpose of effective audit. The Supervisory Committee shall appropriately share information with the internal audit division for the purpose of ensuring mutual cooperative systems. Important personnel affairs of the internal audit division shall be decided with the consent of the Supervisory Committee to ensure the effectiveness of audit by the Supervisory Committee. Supervisory Committee consists of one internal director (Toshihiro Ozawa), who is a full-time member of the Supervisory Committee, and two Independent Directors (Chisa Enomoto and Kazuhiko Tomoda). The chairperson of the committee is Kazuhiko Tomoda, an Independent Directors. Kazuhiko Tomoda is qualified as a certified public accountant and has considerable financial and accounting knowledge. < Nomination and Compensation Committee > The purposes of the Nomination and Compensation Committee include increasing the transparency and objectivity of the decisions on candidates for directors and the Group Senior Executives as well as decisions on compensation while enhancing the managerial and supervisory functions of the Board. Upon receiving requests from the Board, the Nomination and Compensation Committee shall perform the following duties, and submit a report and recommendations to the Board: Matters concerning decision on candidates: ☐ Decision on a recommendation of the appointment and dismissal of the directors for discussion at the general meeting of shareholders ☐ Decision on a recommendation of the appointment and dismissal of the CEO (authority of representation and the position)

Approval of a CEO succession plan

Matters concerning decision on compensation:

Setting the compensation standards for directors and the Group Senior Executives

Decision on a recommendation of the amount of compensation for the directors (excluding directors who are the Supervisory Committee members)

The Nomination and Compensation Committee consists of a majority of Independent Directors, one internal director (Masamichi Mizuta) and three Independent Directors (Ryosuke Tamakoshi, Naohiro Nishiguchi and Masaki Yamauchi). The chairperson of the committee is Ryosuke Tamakoshi, an Independent Director.

3. Reasons for selecting the existing corporate governance system

As stated in "Chapter 2. Corporate Governance Principles (2-1. Principles, 2-2. Roles as a Holding Company, 2-3. Organizational Structure of the Company)" of the Corporate Governance Guideline (https://www.persol-group.co.jp/images/corporate/pdf/E_corporate_governance_guideline_200401.pdf).
