The corporate governance of Nippon Sanso Holdings Corporation (the “Company”) is described below:

I. Basic thinking on corporate governance, capital structure, corporate attributes and other basic information

1. Basic Thinking on Corporate Governance

From the perspective of ensuring sustainable growth of the Company and long-term increase of corporate value, taking into account the positions of shareholders and other stakeholders, customers, employees, and local communities, the Company believes that the essence of corporate governance involves ensuring transparency and fairness of decision-making, making effective use of the management resources available, and maximizing the efficiency and strength of management through prompt and decisive decision-making. The Company will work toward a full implementation of correct corporate governance based on the basic approach below.

- (1) The Company will respect shareholders’ rights and ensure their equality.
- (2) The Company will consider the benefits of shareholders and other stakeholders and work appropriately in partnership with those stakeholders.
- (3) The Company will ensure transparency by releasing appropriate corporate information at appropriate times.
- (4) By separating supervisory and executive functions, the Company will improve effectiveness of the Board of Directors’ supervisory function over the Company’s business executions.
- (5) The Company will engage in constructive dialogue with shareholders in order to contribute to the sustainable growth of the Group and the medium- to long-term improvement of corporate value.

[Reasons for Not Implementing the Respective Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

The Company has implemented each of the principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] [Updated]

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

The Company has established its policy on strategic holdings of listed stock and basic rules on exercising voting rights in relation to strategic stock holdings in Article 4 of “Principles of Corporate Governance” available on its corporate website. The Board of Directors annually carries out a comprehensive assessment of each of strategic stock holdings both quantitatively, by using the Return on Invested Capital (ROIC) indicator, and qualitatively, by analyzing its business needs and other matters, and thereby verify whether there are sufficient reasons for each individual stock holding.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]The Company has established the framework of procedures for related party transactions in Article 5 of “Principles of Corporate Governance” available on the Company’s website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

Taiyo Nippon Sanso (TNSC) which is the core business company of the Company group has established the Corporate Pension Managing Committee that has been engaged in deliberation of the management of corporate pension. TNSC has managed the corporate pension fund in accordance with the basic policy of managing pension reserves and based on the strategic asset contribution ratio necessary for achieving the target of the pension asset management in order to ensure stable management of the employee’s assets, while properly controlling conflict of interests. Furthermore, TNSC has appointed the best trustees based on the strategic asset contribution ratio, evaluated the quantitative and qualitative aspects of the trustees designated by TNSC, and disclosed to employees the summary of performance by trustee, including the investment results of corporate pension fund.

[Principle 3-1(1) Full Disclosure]

The Company has formulated its corporate philosophy and published it on its corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/mission.html>)

The Company has developed its long-term management vision and medium-term management plan and published them on its corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/ir/management/plan.html>)

[Principle 3-1(2) Full Disclosure]

The Company has formulated “Principles of Corporate Governance” as its basic thinking and policy on corporate governance and published it on its corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Principle 3-1(3) Full Disclosure]

As regards the policy and procedures for the Board of Directors' determining of the remuneration of management personnel and directors, please refer to "Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods" in the subsection "Director Remuneration" under the section "1. Matters on Organizational Composition and Operation" under the part "II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management" of this report.

[Principle 3-1(4) Full Disclosure]

The Company has defined its policy and procedures for the Board of Directors' appointment of executive officers and nominating candidates of directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members in Articles 13 through 15 of "Principles of Corporate Governance" available on its corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Principle 4-1-1 Roles and Responsibilities of the Board]

The Company has defined the scope and content of the matters for which the authority is delegated to the management in Article 7.3 of "Principles of Corporate Governance" available on its corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Principle 4-9 Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Directors]

The Company has defined the independence standards for independent outside directors in Article 9.2 of "Principles of Corporate Governance" available on the Company's website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-1 Preconditions for Board and Audit & Supervisory Board Effectiveness]

The Company has defined its view on the appropriate balance between knowledge, experience and skills of the Board of Directors as a whole, and on diversity and appropriate size thereof in Article 9 of "Principles of Corporate Governance" available on the Company's corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-2 Preconditions for Board and Audit & Supervisory Board Effectiveness]

Outside director, Mitsuhiro Katsumaru is also serving as outside director both of Shimano Inc. and Morix Co., Ltd. Director, Hidefumi Date is serving as Director, Managing Corporate Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporation, and Representative Director and President of Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporate Staff, Inc. None of outside Audit & Supervisory Board members has a concurrent position of any other listed company

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-3 Preconditions for Board and Audit & Supervisory Board Effectiveness]

We evaluate the Board of Directors using a questionnaire for the directors. To explain the process more specifically, a questionnaire was distributed to the directors after explaining its content at January's board meeting. Each director answered the questionnaire and submitted it to the chairperson. In the board meeting in March, the directors evaluated the effectiveness of the board based on the answers submitted while discussing problems and proposals for improvement.

The questionnaire included questions about the board's responsibilities as provided in the company's principles of corporate governance, which are: (1) the supervision of overall operation; (2) the establishment of an internal control structure; (3) the selection, appointment, dismissal, and evaluation of the President and CEO as well as other senior executives, and the determination of their compensation; (4) the formulation of management strategy and decisions on the execution of important operations; and (5) communication with shareholders. As for the company's planned transition to a holding company structure in October 2020, the questionnaire also asked opinions about what the Board of Directors should be like under a holding company structure.

As a result, it was confirmed that the board had been performing its functions as required. For the board to perform its functions more properly, the directors decided, at the chairperson's proposal, to continue discussions on what the board of a holding company should be like in preparation for the planned transition to a holding company structure in October 2020.

[Supplementary Principle 4-14-2 Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Members Training]

The Company has defined its training policy for directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members in Article 17 of "Principles of Corporate Governance" available on the Company's corporate website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

[Supplementary Principle 5-1 Dialogue with Shareholders]

The Company has formulated the Disclosure Policy of Nippon Sanso Holdings Corporation as a policy on the structure and initiatives to facilitate constructive dialogue with shareholders and published it on the Company's website.

(<https://www.nipponsanso-hd.co.jp/en/company/governance.html>)

4. Policy on Measures to Protect Minority Shareholders in Conducting Transactions with Controlling Shareholder

When entering into a transaction with its controlling shareholder, the Company has a policy to define reasonable contractual conditions and prices in reference to other transactions and market prices. Furthermore, the Company will obtain approval of the Board of Directors for any material transaction with its controlling shareholder that is not included in the ordinary course of business.

5. Other Special Circumstances which may have Material Impact on Corporate Governance

The Company has entered into the basic agreement with its parent company, Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporation, dated on May 13, 2014, whereby Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporation shall, under its "Group Management Regulations," respect the Company's independence and provide it with full support and cooperation.

If a conflict of interest occurs between the parent company and other shareholders, Nippon Sanso Holding's directors take action so as not to harm the interests of the other shareholders. We appoint two independent outside directors and two full-time independent outside members of the Audit & Supervisory Board. They supervise that any conflict of interest between the parent company and other shareholders should not happen. In addition, we have an Advisory Committee on Appointment and Remuneration that is established voluntary for the Board of Directors to consult with regarding the nomination of candidates for directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Board, as well as the appointment and dismissal of CEO and other executive officers. The committee consists of the president and two independent outside directors, one of them serving as the chairperson. With such structure, we ensure independence from the parent company of the appointment of senior executives.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods	Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

Remuneration for directors is determined by President (CEO), to whom the authority has been delegated by the Board of Directors, in accordance with certain conditions determined by the Company. The Company has established the Advisory Committee on Appointments and Remuneration, a voluntary advisory body, composed of two or more independent outside directors and President (CEO) and chaired by an outside director. When consulted by the Board of Directors, this committee deliberates the appropriateness of the remuneration plans for directors, and then reports the result of the deliberation to the Board of Directors.

[Supporting System for Outside Directors and/or Audit & Supervisory Board Members]

For outside Audit & Supervisory Board members, full-time personnel are in place in the secretariat of the Audit & Supervisory Board to help them perform their duties. For outside directors, relevant materials are provided along with agenda items prior to a meeting of the Board of Directors, and a person in charge of an agenda item gives explanation where necessary. Further, outside directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board regularly meet to exchange information and share the same recognition concerning the Company's business, internal control, corporate governance and other matters.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

The Board of Directors consists of nine members, two of whom are independent, and operates to ensure correct business judgement. The Articles of Incorporation stipulates that the maximum number of directors on the Board of Directors is 15. The Board of Directors holds a regular monthly meeting to discuss important matters and hear reports about business activities. The Company has established the Advisory Committee on Appointments and Remuneration as a discretionary advisory committee under the Board of Directors. The committee is chaired by outside director, Akio Yamada, and attended by President (CEO), Yujiro Ichihara, and outside director, Mitsuhiro Katsumaru. The Board of Directors consults this committee regarding the selection of candidates for the position of director and Audit & Supervisory Board member, the appointment and dismissal of President (CEO) and executive officers, the choosing of successors to President (CEO) and revisions of the internal regulations on director's compensation, and seeks advice from the independent outside directors to ensure the transparency and objectivity of decision making.

In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation of the Company and Article 427(1) of the Companies Act, the Company has entered into agreements with each outside director to limit their liability for damages stipulated in Article 423(1) of the Companies Act, and has set their maximum liability for damages in accordance with Article 425(1) of the Companies Act.

In addition to the Board of Directors, the Company has established the Management Committee consisting of directors and concerned executive officers for prompt decision making. The term of a director has been limited to one year in order to facilitate responsible management in each fiscal year. The Audit & Supervisory Board comprises four full-time members and three of them are outside members. Audit & Supervisory Board members attend meetings of the Board of Directors and the Management Committee to oversee directors' business execution objectively and form and express opinions impartially. The Audit & Supervisory Board conducts its audit in coordination with Independent Auditors and Corporate Audit Office as well. The Audit & Supervisory Board receives reports from the Independent Auditors about their auditing plans and the status of their audit, and also receives reports from Corporate Audit Office about the results of internal audit. Furthermore, the secretariat of the Audit & Supervisory Board staffed by full-time personnel has been in place to help Audit & Supervisory Board members with their duties and thereby ensure the effectiveness of audit conducted by the Audit & Supervisory Board.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company considers that the system described above in "2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions" is the most appropriate corporate governance system for the Company in light of characteristics and size of the Group's business.

The Company has two outside directors. The Audit & Supervisory Board comprises four full-time members, three of whom are outside. Having the two outside directors and two out of the three outside members of the Audit & Supervisory Board satisfies the independence standard for outside directors/Audit & Supervisory Board members required by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. The Company ensures the objectivity and fairness of management oversight functions.
