Notice Concerning the Change of Credit Rating Outlook

Kenedix Retail REIT Corporation (“KRR”) announced today that it received an announcement from Japan Credit Rating Agency, Ltd. (“JCR”) that the long-term issuer rating outlook of KRR was changed as follows.

Details of Credit Rating

Credit Rating Agency	Type of Credit Rating	Before the Change	After the Change
JCR	Long-Term Issuer Rating (Outlook)	A+ (Stable)	A+ (Positive)

For details concerning the reasons for the change of credit rating outlook, please refer to JCR’s website.

KRR seeks to achieve steady growth of its portfolio and increase the value of its assets to provide stable investment returns over the long term through focused investments in shopping centers for daily needs and selective investments in distribution centers that supplement shopping centers to provide products. KRR also seeks further improvement of its credit rating by building a solid financial base and enhancing earnings stability through portfolio diversification.
