Major Update of the KARTE Datahub

- Major updates of KARTE Datahub, adding Business Intelligence (BI) function and  $\beta$  version machine learning platform
- Use cases will be expanded form marketing focus to broader business areas

Analysis and visualization of big data without changing them into different kinds of data

Spreadsheet

Enables the processing and analysis of data using functions and filters, through operations that are similar to spreadsheet software operations

Dashboard

Visualizes data, creating charts based on the results of analysis from queries or sheets. It permits the creation of dashboards with drag and drop operations

Templates for machine learning models for each business issue

Purchasing customer prediction

Purchase probability of each user can be determined or coupons can be distributed to users based on this prediction

Leaving customer prediction

ユーザーの

再来訪確率を

Revisiting probability of each user can be estimated or effects of measures re-engaging dormant users can be maximized with this prediction

Loyal customer prediction

'Magic numbers' effective for high LTV users are derived and UIs or messages can be improved based on this prediction

Provision of the Open β Version of KARTE Blocks

• November 18, 2020, 'KARTE Blocks' open  $\beta$  (1) version made available, which redefines websites as aggregated 'blocks'

What are possible for website management by this new BMS?

Redefines websites as an aggregation of blocks to manage, update, and review websites by each 'block', just by adding a tag without writing codes

Adding a tag

Ready to use just by adding a tag to the website

Tearing down a website into blocks

A website is teared down into blocks, enabling users to select and replace blocks on their administration screens

Managing blocks

Users can edit and update each block as they desire, without writing code in addition to setting publishing schedules

Measuring effects

Effects of blocks can be measured and visualized, enabling users to continuously improve website performance
