[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

[Supplementary Principle 4.2.1 Management compensation as an incentive]

Compensation of internal directors and executive officers of the Company consists of fixed compensation as a consideration for the execution of duties and variable compensation that is linked to the financial performance of the Company for the relevant single fiscal year. As such, it is not linked to medium- to long-term results. However, the Company believes that the officers’ shareholding association, which is the arrangement under which officers of the Company share common interests with the Company’s stockholders through the holding of the Company’s own shares, is functioning as an incentive for sustainable growth and the increase of the corporate value of the Company over the medium to long term.

The Company has been considering how to provide more effective and sensible incentives for sustainable growth, and now plans to introduce a new compensation system in fiscal 2021, the first year of the medium-term management plan.

The Pension Committee regularly monitors the investment status of the plan assets and reviews the portfolio composition of the plan assets as necessary.

The Pension Committee consists of personnel who belong to the accounting and finance, human resources, and other divisions with a thorough knowledge of asset management and pension plan, such as officers in charge of accounting, human resources, and corporate planning.

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Compensation Amounts and Calculation Methods

(i) Matters concerning the policy for determining compensation, etc. for individual Directors The Company has determined policy for determining compensation, etc. for individual Directors (hereinafter the "Officer Compensation Determination Policy") at the meeting of Board of Directors. When determining compensation for Directors, the Company will clarify management responsibilities, raise awareness of improving business performance, and strengthen the link between the compensation and stockholders' benefit. The outline of Directors' compensation determination process is as follows: The Company establishes the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, the majority of whose members are Outside Directors and is chaired by an Outside Director, as an advisory body to the Board of Directors. From the view of enhancing the fairness, transparency, and objectivity, the compensation shall be discussed by said Committee, which reports to the Board of Directors, and shall be determined at the discretion of Representative Directors at the Board of Directors meeting, within the range of suitable amount based on a resolution of the General Meeting of Stockholders and the regulations of the Company, while also respecting the contents of report of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee to the maximum extent possible. The compensation plan for Directors (excluding Outside Directors) consists of fixed compensation and performance-linked compensation whereas the compensation plan for Outside Directors consists only of fixed compensation. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The amounts of fixed compensation are determined according to the rank of position.• The amount of the performance-linked compensation of Directors (excluding Outside Directors) is calculated by multiplying the amount calculated as profit attributable to owners of parent for the current fiscal year times 1% (an upper limit of ¥400 million) by the multiplier assigned to each position. It is paid starting from July in the fiscal year following the end of the current fiscal year. However, this amount can be reduced in consideration of the financial performance of the Company or other circumstances. In principle, performance-linked compensation is not paid if the amount of annual dividend for the current fiscal year is less than ¥30 per share.

- The composition ratio of fixed compensation and performance-linked compensation in the amount of compensation is 100% to approximately 60% for fixed compensation and 0% to approximately 40% for performance-linked compensation, depending on profit. Performance-linked compensation makes up 33% of the total compensation for FY2020.

- Profit attributable to owners of parent was chosen as an indicator with an aim to strengthen the link between the compensation and stockholders' benefit. The actual result of profit attributable to owners of parent for FY2019, which serves as a basis for calculating the performance-linked compensation for FY2020, was ¥39.1 billion.

Furthermore, the Company determined to revise the Officer Compensation Determination Policy at the Board of Directors meeting held on May 20, 2021, subject to the approval of Proposal No. 5 "Determination of Compensation for Granting Restricted Stock to Directors Other Than Outside Directors and Revisions of Compensation Amounts for Directors" at the 23rd Ordinary General Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 29, 2021. The determination was made after discussion within the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, which has reported to the effect that revised Officer Compensation Determination Policy was appropriate. The contents of revised Officer Compensation Determination Policy are as follows.

The Company has determined policy for determining compensation, etc. for individual Directors (hereinafter the "Officer Compensation Determination Policy") at the meeting of Board of Directors. When determining compensation for Directors, the Company will clarify management responsibilities, raise awareness of improving business performance, and strengthen the link between the compensation and stockholders' benefit, while offering the Directors incentives to achieve improvement of the long-term business performance and corporate value of the Group and sharing more of that value with the stockholders. The outline of Directors' compensation determination process is as follows: The Company establishes the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee, the majority of whose members are Outside Directors and is chaired by an Outside Director, as an advisory body to the Board of Directors. From the view of enhancing the fairness, transparency, and objectivity, the compensation shall be discussed by said Committee, which reports to the Board of Directors, and shall be determined at the discretion of Representative Directors at the Board of Directors meeting, within the range of suitable amount based on a resolution of the General Meeting of Stockholders and the regulations of the Company, while also respecting the contents of report of the Nomination and Compensation Advisory Committee to the maximum extent possible.

The compensation plan for Directors (excluding Outside Directors) consists of fixed compensation, stock compensation and performance-linked compensation whereas the compensation plan for Outside Directors consists only of fixed compensation.

- The amounts of fixed compensation and stock compensation are determined according to the rank of position.

- The amount of the performance-linked compensation of Directors (excluding Outside Directors) is calculated by multiplying the amount calculated as profit attributable to owners of parent for the current fiscal year times 1% (an upper limit of ¥400 million) by the multiplier assigned to each position. It is paid starting from July in the fiscal year following the end of the current fiscal year. However, this amount can be reduced in consideration of the financial performance of the Company or other circumstances. In principle, performance-linked compensation is not paid if the amount of annual dividend for the current fiscal year is less than ¥30 per share.
