An Overview of Corporate Governance at Pigeon Corporation (the “Company”) is Described Below.

1 Basic Policy Regarding Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Policy

The Company has developed the “Pigeon Way,” as described below, comprising its Purpose, Values, Action Principles and Vision, under its Corporate Philosophy of “Love” and its Credo of “Only love can beget love,” as the basis of its spirit and actions to be shared by all Pigeon Group employees, both in Japan and abroad.

The “Pigeon Way” is more than a mere slogan. The Company believes that having all employees become strongly aware of the “Pigeon Way” and putting it into action will inevitably improve corporate value, and that its corporate value encompasses both social and economic value. We are aiming to achieve the goal of improving social value mainly by becoming an indispensable part of society, while delivering joy and happiness to our target customers, by providing solutions and new value. The Company established the following six (6) priority materialities (Key Issues) to be addressed in terms of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG): 1) enhancement of business competitiveness and R&D capabilities; 2) sustainable reduction of environmental impact; 3) enhancement of stakeholder support capability; 4) improvement of the quality of human resources; 5) creation of comfortable working environment; and 6) development of a solid management base, all of which will be incorporated into our business strategies. Meanwhile, we are aiming to achieve the goal of improving economic value mainly by increasing free cash flow consistently, efficiently, and strategically, as we move into the future.

Based on this approach, the Company defines corporate governance as “the system that pays due respect to the views of our employees, customers, business partners, shareholders and local communities, and that ensures transparent and fair as well as prompt and bold decision-making” and the purpose of corporate governance as the means to achieving “the Company’s sustained growth and the improvement of corporate value in the medium- to long-term.”

The Company will continue to further strengthen this system in accordance with the above definition and make efforts to continuously enhance its corporate governance in pursuit of further improving its corporate value.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

1. Securing the Rights and Equal Treatment of Shareholders

(Principle 1.2 Exercise of Shareholder Rights at General Shareholder Meetings)

In recognition of the General Meeting of Shareholders as the highest decision-making body, as well as the opportunity for constructive dialogue with shareholders, the Company provides sufficient time and setting for shareholders to appropriately exercise their rights, while at the same time determining the date and location and developing an environment to facilitate shareholder attendance. Specifically, the Company is engaged in the following initiatives.

- The Company strives to prepare a convocation notice that is easy to read by using graphs, images, and plain language in its explanations.
- The Company reflects feedback from shareholders in the operation of the General Meeting of Shareholders by means such as providing a special child-care room and assistance through a sign language interpreter at the meeting venue, in order to create an environment that promotes attendance.

Prior to dispatching the convocation notice, it also discloses information included in the notice in both

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Japanese and English at the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. (referred to below as the “Tokyo Stock Exchange”), on the Electronic Voting Platform, and on the Company’s website no later than approximately one month before the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

- Bearing in mind the percentage of foreign and institutional investors, the Company, in an effort to ensure convenience of the exercise of voting rights, offers voting via the Internet and uses the Electronic Voting Platform.
- When investors who hold shares of the Company in street names express an interest in attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company allows them to sit in after undergoing the necessary procedures, although it does not permit the exercise of voting rights. The necessary procedures are disclosed on the Company’s website.

(Principle 1.3 Basic Strategy for Capital Policy)

The Company’s business model is to generate profits efficiently from slim assets. We believe that the Company’s current capital structure is fully capable of underpinning the future growth of the Group’s businesses, without major reliance on outside financing.

The Company sets a WACC of 5% and sets high targets that greatly exceed the Company’s capital costs for PVA (Pigeon Value Added, a performance indicator), ROIC (return on invested capital), and ROE (return on equity). The Company carries out concrete measures to achieve these targets and discloses progress in biannual results briefings. For downsizing and improving the efficiency of working capital in particular, we set targets for CCC (cash conversion cycle), targets that the Group as a whole strives to meet. The WACC of 5% is used as the base hurdle rate for investment projects.

As for dividend policy, pursuant to our Seventh Medium-Term Business Plan, our target is to reach approximately 56.0 billion yen in operating cash flow over a three-year period, and to direct approximately 25.0 billion yen of that cash flow into capital investments and strategic M&As for growth. Meanwhile, our basic policy is to proactively return profits to shareholders while stabilizing our financial position, targeting year-on-year increases in cash dividends in each fiscal period and a total shareholder return ratio of 55% on a consolidated basis.

(Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings)

The Company may hold shares as cross-shareholdings, with the aim of improving relations and collaboration with business partners. As of the submission date of this report, the Company holds only two stocks listed in Japan (61 million yen on its balance sheets as of December 31, 2020) as cross-shareholdings.

Regarding individual cross-shareholdings, the Company confirms the background and objectives of holding the shares, the status of transactions, and risks associated with holding the shares, etc. The Company reviews whether or not shares can continue to be held each year, as well as the number of shares to hold, and obtains approval for cross-shareholdings by the Board of Directors, as a disclosure item of the annual securities report. Furthermore, the Pigeon Group exercises voting rights for cross-shareholdings after considering proposals from the perspective of improving the corporate value of the Pigeon Group, while paying due respect to the management policy of the company it invests in.

(Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions)

The Company believes that the monitoring of conflicts of interest is a typical role and function expected of Outside Directors. The Company directly confirms with the Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members every six months the existence of important transactions between the Company and its major shareholders, competing transactions between the Company and its Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members, conflict-of-interest transactions (self-dealing and indirect transactions) as well as related party transactions, and reports the results to the Board of Directors. In addition, the “Board of Directors Rules” stipulate that a resolution of the Board of Directors is required when engaging in such transactions.

2. Appropriate Cooperation with Stakeholders Other Than Shareholders

(Principle 2.3 Sustainability Issues, Including Social and Environmental Matters)

Guided by the Purpose of the “Pigeon Way,” “We want to make the world more baby-friendly by furthering our commitment to understanding and addressing babies' unique needs," the Company is striving not only to deliver joy and happiness to society and its target customers by solving problems and providing new value through its business activities, thereby becoming an indispensable part of society, but also to foster a sense of trust, and to achieve harmonious coexistence through its positive communication with people in local communities. With regard to the environment, in addition to complying with relevant laws and regulations, such as the Energy Saving Act and Law Concerning the Promotion of the Measures to Cope with Global Warming, the Company establishes energy-efficient systems and is promoting specific activities. As a supplier of daily commodities, we have a large lineup of environmentally friendly products that pay meticulous attention to each stage of the manufacturing process, from the selection of raw materials to manufacturing, logistics, use, and disposal, in order to avoid an adverse impact on the global environment.

Specifically, the Company is engaged in the following initiatives.

<Social Initiatives>

- The Company is conducting joint research with the hospital and clinic neonatal intensive care units (NICUs) to develop exclusive products so that infants with low birth weight or disabilities can also drink mother's milk and packaged milk with minimal effort. These products include nipples for infants with low birth weight, nipples for babies with weak sucking function, and nursing bottles specially designed for babies with cleft lips and/or palates.
- The Company is engaged in the ongoing tree-planting activity, "Newborn Baby Commemorative Tree-Planting Campaign," which was launched in 1986. Through this initiative, we help create lifelong memories for parents and children, and continue to build relationships with local communities and help safeguard the environment by protecting the forest.
- The Company launched the "Pigeon Smile Breastfeeding Period Research Group" in collaboration with various experts on mothers and babies during breastfeeding, with the aim of identifying issues faced while breastfeeding and providing solutions to them. The philosophy of this initiative is to "realize a society in which more babies are raised in good health and more mothers feel happy when raising children."
- The Company established the "Pigeon Scholarship Foundation" with the aim of realizing a society in which everyone can give birth and raise children with peace of mind, while fostering the healthy lives and growth of mothers and babies. To that end, the foundation provides scholarship support, without obligation of repayment, to students in the neonatal, pediatric, and obstetrics departments of universities (students majoring in medicine at domestic general universities or medical universities).
- Pigeon supports the healthy growth of babies born prematurely or with low birthweight. In this spirit, we support human milk bank for the supply of donor milk. As part of this effort, we fully supported to open the Nihonbashi Human Milk Bank—the second such facility in Japan—within our Tokyo Head Office in September 2020.

- For the raw materials of products, the Company is committed to the sustainable use of resources. For example, we do not use any natural rubber but instead use silicon rubber made from silicon and silica gel.

<Environmental Initiatives>

- To "preserve an abundant earth for the future of babies that will be born tomorrow," through the formation of a sustainable society in a world with limited resources, in 2020, we established an environment policy and a biodiversity policy.
- The Pigeon Group has specified the volume of our greenhouse gas emissions (scope 1, scope 2), both direct and indirect. We have set goals for CO² reduction and are strengthening systems to promote activities at each company. As an initiative for CO² reduction, we installed solar panels at each factory (two companies in China, one company in India, and one company in Indonesia) switched to LED lighting. At some factories in Japan, we are proceeding with the purchase of renewable energy (hydroelectric power).
- The Pigeon Group promotes the acquisition of ISO-14001 certification for environmental management systems, and in 2020 obtained ISO-14001 certification for all its factories.
- We established new CSR procurement policies and guidelines. We will fulfill our social responsibility and responsibility for reducing the burden on the environment and conducting fair trading. Also, we are starting cooperative initiatives with our suppliers to bring about a sustainable society.

- In December 2020, we established a sustainable development policy. In Japan, we began displaying the “Pigeon Environment Label” from February 2021 so that customers can choose environmentally friendly products. We display the “Pigeon Environment Label” on the packaging of products that meet the “Display Standards for the Pigeon Environment Label,” which are environmental standards set by the Company.
- In December 2020, the Company joined the RSPO (Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil). We will proceed with the sustainable procurement of raw materials, and in the future, we will release products.
- The Company is very stringent and cautious when selecting raw materials and ingredients to ensure that they are derived from food additives that have no impact on the human body. For our body soaps and other liquids and detergents, we strive to prevent pollution by identifying sources of pollution and waste related to our production activities and promoting the reduction of industrial waste at all group companies.

(Principle 2.4 Ensuring Diversity, Including Active Participation of Women)

The Pigeon Group believes that corporate value encompasses both social and economic value. In order to deliver high-quality products to the world, we must create an environment that motivates employees to work. If we do not take care of our employees, we cannot succeed in business. For this reason, in an effort to provide a rewarding workplace that encourages our employees to have pride and motivation in working for the Pigeon Group over the long term, we are engaged in the following initiatives, stated in our Corporate Ethics Policies: “Pigeon shall respect its employees’ diversity and personalities at all times, offering them a comfortable working environment that gives consideration to health and safety. It shall also create workplaces that enable their self-fulfillment and motivate its employees.”

- We are upgrading various frameworks and systems to create a comfortable working environment for our employees, while building a corporate culture that helps our employees perform their tasks more easily and providing them with opportunities to participate in capacity development, training, and practice. We are particularly committed to upgrading various systems and facilities to support employees in terms of balancing work and child-care, and developing an environment conducive to the advancement of women. These include setting up a breastfeeding/pumping room called the Lactation Lounge, promoting our work-at-home system, and launching the “Life Design Leave,” a system enabling employees to take time off for fertility treatment. Moreover, to encourage male employees to take an active part in child-care, we adopted a parental leave plan called “One Month Together,” offering one month’s paid leave to male employees to encourage more men to take parental leave, aiming at fostering employees who are well versed on the subject of raising children.
- To discourage excessively long working hours, foster a good work-life balance, and increase labor productivity, the Company has implemented various measures including a rule to leave the workplace by 7:00 p.m. and setting one day per week as a “no overtime day,” and the promotion of telework.

(Principal 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners)

The Company has introduced a corporate defined contribution pension plan to support the asset formation of its employees. The Company’s financial status will never be affected by the future performance of pension management. Furthermore, in order to support our employees’ asset formation, we brief all new permanent employees regarding the features of the pension management institutions, managed products, and methods of selection. We also strive to enrich our employees’ knowledge regarding asset management, through use of the educational tools provided by the pension management institutions, etc.

For details, please see <<Executive remuneration policy>>, below.

The retirement benefits system for Directors was abolished as of the conclusion of the 62nd Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, held on April 25, 2019.

Remuneration for executives is determined by the Board of Directors, following deliberations by the Remuneration Committee, within the limit for the remuneration for Directors approved by the 62nd Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, held on April 25, 2019 (a maximum of 800 million yen per year (including a maximum of 100 million yen per year for Outside Directors); however, this amount does not include the employee salary portion for those Directors who serve concurrently as employees. Separate from the above remuneration, executives may be granted up to a maximum of 600 million yen over a three-fiscal-year period, as performance-linked stock remuneration; however, performance-linked stock remuneration for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 was up to a maximum of 200 million yen for that one-fiscal-year period.)

<<Executive remuneration policy>>

- 1. Basic policy regarding corporate governance

Please refer to “Basic Policy” presented in I. 1., above.

- 2. Basic policy on executive remuneration

The Company’s basic policy on remuneration for Directors (hereinafter referred to as “executive remuneration”) shall be as follows, in accordance with the aforementioned “1. Basic policy regarding corporate governance”:

- (i) It should contribute to “management that improves the corporate value” of the Group over the medium- to long-term;
- (ii) It should contribute to the hiring of talented managers toward the achievement of “Global Number One,” based on the “Pigeon Way”; and
- (iii) The remuneration system should be highly independent, objective, and transparent, and accountable to stakeholders.

- 3. Remuneration levels

The Company determines levels of executive remuneration in accordance with the aforementioned “2. Basic policy on executive remuneration,” after surveying and analyzing its business environment and the compensation levels in its peer group of companies in the same industry (manufacturing) and of the same size, through external databases, etc.

Remuneration levels for each position are listed as below (with president as 100%)

Position	Remuneration Level
President	100%
Chairman, vice president	80%
Executive officer, senior executive officer	60%
Managing executive officer	50%
Director	40%

4. Remuneration mix

The remuneration for the Company's Directors (excluding Independent Outside Directors) consists of "basic remuneration" commensurate with position, "bonuses" provided as short-term incentives, and "stock remuneration (performance-based and non-performance-based)" provided as a medium- to long-term incentive. The remuneration for Independent Outside Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members consists of "basic remuneration" only.

(Note) "Bonuses" and "stock remuneration (performance-based)" is applicable to performance-based remuneration etc., "stock remuneration (performance-based and non-performance-based)" is applicable to non-monetary remuneration listed in Article 98, paragraph (5) of the Regulation for Enforcement of the Companies Act.

(i) Overview of remuneration types

<Basic remuneration>

Positions are determined in accordance with roles and responsibilities of each Director in the Company's five business departments. Monetary amounts are decided by position and paid as monthly remuneration every month.

<Bonuses>

Bonuses are paid in March every year for the purpose of granting incentives according to the Group's consolidated performance and the performance of the Director's respective departments each fiscal year. Consolidated performance will vary within a range from 0 to 150%, in accordance with the achievement level of targeted "net sales," which indicates the scale of the Company's main businesses; "operating income," which indicates the profitability of the Company's main businesses; and, "PVA" (Pigeon Value Added, the Company's original performance indicator), which indicates the amount of corporate value created in excess of capital costs. These targets utilize the performance forecasts published in the summary of financial results at the beginning of each period for net sales and operating income, and in the initial fiscal-year plan for PVA.

The Chairman of the Board, President and CEO, and Director in charge of GHO are evaluated only based on consolidated performance. However, for other Directors, bonuses will vary within a range from 0 to 150% based on the base amount of bonuses set for each position, in accordance with the achievement level of targets, with consolidated performance accounting for 70%, and the performance of the Directors' respective departments (net sales, operating income, and PVA) accounting for 30%.

The valuation ratio for each indicator is as follows:

Indicator	Valuation Ratio
Net sales	50%
Operating income	30%
PVA	20%

<Stock remuneration>

Stock remuneration is paid at the time of retirement for the purpose of granting an incentive to improve the Group's medium- to long-term company performance and corporate value, and to place Directors in the "same boat" as the shareholders (thus, giving Directors and shareholders a shared interest).

The base amount of share remuneration is set for each position, and this base amount consists of 60% performance shares and 40% restricted stock.

• Performance shares

In principle, performance shares will vary within a range from 0 to 150%, primarily in accordance with the achievement level of target financial indicators set out in the Medium-Term Business Plan (consolidated net sales CAGR, EPS growth rate, ROE and TSR (Total Shareholder Return)) as well as non-financial indicators (e.g., sustainable reduction of environmental impact, development of products and services that help solve social issues, and engaging in dialogue with shareholders and investors in a responsible manner). Financial indicators are used because they promote the continuous growth of the top line (net sales), further improvement of business profitability and efficiency, as well as an increase in corporate value over the medium- to long-term. With regard to non-financial indicators, we will work to solve social issues surrounding babies, their mothers and their families, as well as reduce factors that lead to environmental load in all countries and regions in which the Group operates, with the aim of making the world more baby-friendly. Furthermore, we will establish a solid management base to continuously support babies by actively engaging with shareholders and investors to gain their understanding and consent to these measures. If the targets set out in the Medium-Term Business Plan are changed significantly, the Board of Directors determines the appropriateness of the target values for stock remuneration, after deliberation by the Remuneration Committee.

The valuation ratio for each indicator is as follows:

Indicator	Valuation Ratio
Financial Indicators	80%
Consolidated net sales CAGR	30%
EPS growth rate	30%
ROE	10%
TSR (relative comparison)	10%
Non-financial Indicators	20%
Sustainable reduction of environmental impact	5%
Development of products and services that help solve social issues	10%
Engaging in dialogue with shareholders and investors in a responsible manner	5%
Restricted stock

From the same-boat perspective, a fixed number of shares will be allocated as stock remuneration.

The Company recommends that in principle, Directors (excluding Independent Outside Directors) hold at least one year's worth of basic remuneration in Company shares.

Stock remuneration is allocated through a trust-based stock remuneration system. This system grants units (points) to the trustees each year, and issues shares in the Company corresponding to the number of units (points) from the trust at the time of retirement. From the same-boat perspective, the determined number of units (points) is disclosed in the Reference Documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Management of Company shares is entrusted to Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation.

(ii) Standard model for the composition of Director (excluding Independent Outside Directors) remuneration (if the achievement level of each indicator is 100%)

Type of remuneration	Composition Percentage
Basic remuneration	60%
Bonuses	20%
Stock remuneration	20%

5. Determination process

In order to increase the independence, objectivity, and transparency of the details of the executive remuneration system, a Remuneration Committee has been established as an advisory body to the Board of Directors, chaired by and with a majority consisting of Independent Outside Directors. In principle, the Remuneration Committee shall meet at least four times per year, deliberate primarily on the following main agenda items regarding executive remuneration amounts, calculation methods, and policy for deciding the content of remuneration per individual, and provide advice and proposals to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, in turn follows such advice and proposals to the greatest extent possible in its decision-making. Please note that executive remuneration will be paid within the limit of remuneration adopted at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

In order to introduce an objective perspective from outside of the Company, as well as expertise on the executive remuneration system, the Company employs an outside consultant, with whose support it considers the details of the remuneration system, while taking into account matters such as external data, the economic environment, industry trends, management conditions, employee remuneration amount, and dividend amount.

2. Story of how we set the expertise for the skill matrix (the underlined sections below respond to each item of the “Expertise demanded of the Board of Directors.”)

(1) Connection between Pigeon Way, Purpose, and Materiality

The Company sets forth the Pigeon Way, which is the cornerstone of all our activities and has our corporate philosophy “Love” at its core. Within this, we have set our Purpose, in other words, “We want to make the world more baby-friendly by furthering our commitment to understanding and addressing babies’ unique needs.”

To bring about the Pigeon Way and our Purpose, we established the six priority materialities (Key Issues) to address Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Environmental, Social, and Governance.

As listed below, each area of expertise outlined in the skills matrix is necessary to address these priority materialities.

We will achieve the priority materialities by demonstrating expertise. As a result, we will contribute to developing a sustainable society by increasing corporate value (societal value and economic value).

1) Enhancement of business competitiveness and R&D capabilities

The Company has developed basic research, including early development research and nursing research, behavior observation, and design capabilities through focusing on babies’ natural state and thoroughly investigating their development process.

We have ensured design quality based on the “Pigeon Quality Standard (PQS),” Pigeon’s own standard that strives for safety, durability, and usability. Also, we have ensured manufacturing quality based on “Pigeon Productive Management (PPM).” Building upon PQS and PPM, the core of the Company that has been cultivated until now is the manufacture and provision of products that use raw materials that are safe for babies (supply chain management).

In addition, in order to realize our Purpose, “We want to make the world more baby-friendly by furthering our commitment to understanding and addressing babies’ unique needs,” we must strive to solve social issues affecting babies and mothers and work towards a society where anyone can raise children with peace of mind. We believe this is Pigeon’s unique contribution to society.

To fulfill this societal contribution, in addition to the Company’s core strengths, we must further strengthen Pigeon's strong brand (branding) that we have built by understanding and addressing babies' unique needs. We must also globally expand product development and marketing that embodies our dedication to babies, particularly in the untapped markets of developing nations, including Africa.

Through the above, the creation and implementation of systems that promote the development of next-generation businesses that solve social issues and consider the entire value chain will be possible. This will also cause the Company's business competitiveness and development capabilities to improve.

2) Sustainable Reduction of Environmental Impact

The Company will achieve Pigeon's unique, sustainable reduction in environmental impact to "preserve abundant earth for the future of babies that will be born tomorrow," an objective that Pigeon should achieve as a company that continues to understand and address babies' needs. The Company will do so through supply chain management that brings about environmentally-friendly products, packaging R&D, reducing plastic, and builds upon design quality based on PQS and manufacturing quality based on PPM.

3) Enhancement of Stakeholder Support Capability

The Company's most important stakeholders are its employees. Developing professional human resources who can play an active role globally outlined in 4) and creating an environment and fostering a corporate culture where employees want to keep working at Pigeon set out in 5) can become something of value to Pigeon only when there is not one-way communication where the Company gives orders to employees, but two-way communication where we sincerely listen to employees' demands and expectations, accept them, and give it our all to make them a reality.

Also, mothers who closely support the growth of babies and their families are customers whom the Company must place utmost importance. We value two-way communication with mothers and their families, put ourselves in the position of mothers and their families, take their opinions seriously, and reflecting these opinions in the design and R&D of the products provided by the Company and in management and business strategy, marketing and branding is essential for the Company.

As such, without placing unnecessary emphasis on the one-sided pursuit of the Company's profits, we will sincerely consider benefits for stakeholders (employees, customers, business partners, shareholders and the local community etc.). This will make it possible for us to continue to be "loved" by stakeholders through the detailed provision of information and valuing two-way communication to create win-win relationships.

4) Improvement of the Quality of Human Resources

Improvement of the quality of our employees who support the human element of the Company's sustainable growth is a top priority for the Company to realize the Pigeon Way and our Purpose and to globally bring about a society where anyone can raise children with peace of mind. Therefore, it is necessary to develop professional human resources who can play an active role globally and whose perspective is not limited to Japan and countries where we have existing businesses, but also includes expanding into untapped countries and regions.

5) Creation of a Comfortable Working Environment

So that the Company can deliver products and services of a higher quality to market through employees fully demonstrating their abilities and nature, it is necessary to realize a working environment and corporate culture where many employees have a spark in their eyes and feel like they want to continue to work at Pigeon. In doing so, we will adequately consider diversity, work-life balance, the management and maintenance of employee health, and take into account the expectations and demands of employees as well as the intentions of the Board of Directors and management.

6) Development of a Solid Management Base

It is necessary to develop a solid management base that will bring about sustainable growth based on sufficient experience concerning the business and the industry to which the Company belongs while incorporating various opinions from outside the Company. Namely, management and business strategy backed by Pigeon's brand that is built on our commitment to address babies' unique needs and is developing further as well as sound and appropriate corporate finance (finance and accounting) and corporate governance (law, compliance, risk management) is necessary.

(2) Connection with the Seventh Medium-Term Business Plan

When setting the expertise for the skill matrix, we considered the key strategies of the Seventh

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Medium-Term Business Plan in addition to the Pigeon Way, our Purpose and priority materialities. This is because for company executives to realize the Pigeon Way, our Purpose, and priority materialities, promotion of the key strategies of the Seventh Medium-Term Business Plan matches the intention of not only the Company but also the shareholders who have nominated the executives.

From this perspective:

Premise: Building on sufficient experience concerning the business and the industry to which the Company belongs, management and business strategy that is backed by solid corporate finance (finance and accounting) that realizes sustainable growth, corporate governance (law, compliance, and risk management) and brand, along with the fostering of corporate culture and human resource development of employees who play the leading role in development and implementation of each strategy as a common foundation:

- 1) Brand strategy: We will focus on the child-care issues that the important customers of the Company, mothers and their families face, and by promoting design, R&D, and product development to solve these issues and supply chain management that builds upon design quality based on PQS, and manufacturing quality based on PPM, through child-care, a free and joyful future will be created where diverse values resonate and each babies' curiosity and strength to grow is respected. As a result, our brand promise, "Celebrate babies the way they are," will be fulfilled, and we will be able to develop a brand "chosen by consumers who buy into a business" rather than a brand "chosen by customers who buy a product."
- 2) Product strategy: Focusing on the Company's core products of nursing bottles and nipples, breast pumps, oral care, and skincare, by promoting branding and marketing and product manufacturing and sales with a view to global expansion including to untapped regions and countries and that also pursues the needs of the important customers of the Company, mothers and their families, we will be able to accelerate growth in our core products which we can have a unique competitive advantages in global market.
- 3) Regional strategy: Agile Implementation will be possible by constructing supply chains that are suited to the characteristics of the market of each country and region through the marketing of products and services, procurement of raw materials, manufacture, and sales of products that build upon branding that is based on an understanding of the conditions of global business that includes untapped countries and regions.

Through the above, by the Company's executives holistically possessing the expertise listed in the skills matrix, we will be able to respond to the above three key strategies of the Seventh Medium Term Business Plan.

2. Items relating to Functions of Business Execution, Audit and Supervision, Nomination, and Decision on Remuneration, etc. (Outline of the Current Governance System)

(1) Personnel Composition

The current managerial structure comprises 12 Directors (nine men and three women; 11 Japanese and one non-Japanese), including five Outside Directors, and four Audit & Supervisory Board Members (three men and one woman, all of whom are Japanese), including two Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members. The Company strives to respond promptly and appropriately to changes in the business environment, and, in order to establish sustained growth and a solid operating foundation, it strives to carry out management decision making rationally and efficiently. In addition, since the year 2000, to strengthen the business execution function, the Company has introduced a managing officer system in which managing officers are responsible for execution of business. Furthermore, in April 2012, to provide for mutual partnership between decision-making/ management functions (governance) and execution of business, and to clarify the operating responsibilities of Directors, the Company introduced an entrusted managing officer system.

(2) Board of Directors and Advisory Panel

The Board of Directors has authority to supervise the execution of duties of directors and managing officers. As a general rule, the Board of Directors’ meeting is held once a month with the board chairman acting as chairperson, and it takes decisions on matters (management objectives and important business-execution strategies such as the management strategy) prescribed in laws and regulations, in the articles of incorporation, and in the “Board of Directors Rules.” Furthermore, the Board of Directors operates to elicit the lively opinions of Outside Directors as well as the internal and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members, thereby strengthening the business-execution supervision functions.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

1) In addition, to improve the independence, objectivity, and transparency of the decision process for the appointment, dismissal, and nomination of Directors, the Company has established a nominating and compensation committee both headed by Outside Directors and comprised of a majority of Outside Directors as an advisory panel for the Board of Directors.

2) Also, to further enhance corporate governance at the Pigeon Group centered on the Company, we established a new "Governance Committee" on March 30, 2021 as an advisory panel for the Board of Directors.

① Context and Objective of the Establishment of the Committee

To achieve our purpose of corporate governance, "the Company's sustained growth and the improvement of corporate value in the medium- to long-term," we must further enhance the Company's corporate governance. Corporate governance is defined as "the system that pays due respect to the views of our employees, customers, business partners, shareholders and local communities, and that ensures transparent and fair as well as prompt and bold decision-making." To enhance corporate governance, we must review the progress in addressing the six (6) priority materialities (Key Issues) established by the Company in terms of sustainability management and further strengthen systems for giving guidance and support.

Therefore, we must not only follow and implement guidelines and regulations of the Companies Act and other corporate laws (related to corporate governance) but also further reinforce ESG and SDGs regarding sustainability management, risk management, compliance, internal controls, and other measures and practices concerning corporate governance at the Company.

Currently, for the E (Environment) and S (Social) of ESG, the Company is implementing a system where governance is brought about by the Board of Directors, through the Sustainability Committee taking the lead in the integration and promotion in responses to Key Issues and reporting to the Board of Directors. Similarly, for G (Governance), response to Key Issues and reporting to the Board of Directors is carried out by the Risk Management Committee for risk management, compliance, and information security. Through organically coordinating and integrating Risk Management Committee-driven response and reports, internal control, and other functions and roles regarding corporate governance at the Company, along with issues derived from Corporate Law and other guidelines and regulations, it will be possible to work towards total optimization of corporate governance at the Company, exceeding the partial optimization of each role and function related to corporate governance. As a result, we will be able to strive for the further enhancement of measures and policies related to corporate governance.

Therefore, we will encourage the organic cooperation and integration of the individual functions, roles, and issues related to corporate governance, along with establishing the Governance Committee as an advisory body of the Board of Directors for independent implementation.

② Composition of Committee

This Committee is comprised of Outside Director, Rehito Hatoyama as chairman, and Chairman of the Board, Shigeru Yamashita, President and CEO, Norimasa Kitazawa, Director, Senior Managing Executive Officer, Tadashi Itakura, Outside Director, Chiaki Hayashi, Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Koichi Otsu, and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Atsuko Taishido as members.

(3) Management Committee

As a general rule, the Management Committee holds a meeting once a week, with the President and CEO acting as chairperson. In this manner, we strive to find early solutions to problems from the viewpoint of our work sites. With Audit & Supervisory Board Members attending this committee meeting and stating their opinions, etc., we are striving to improve the supervision function.

(4) Audit Department

1) In accordance with the audit policy, the division of audit work, etc., the four Audit & Supervisory Board Members, which includes two Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members, conducts rigorous auditing through measures such as attending important meetings including those of the Board of Directors, giving an audience to the Directors, viewing important resolution documents and other documentation, and investigating the status of operations and property. In addition, the Audit & Supervisory Board regularly holds meetings with the President and CEO, and, by receiving reports on matters such as important company issues and carries out frank exchanges of opinions.

2) The Audit & Supervisory Board Members, the Audit Department, and the Accounting Auditors mutually collaborate through measures including regular debriefing sessions and, at any time as necessary, exchanges of information and opinions. Certified public accountants who performed accounting or audit work for the Company for the 64th fiscal year (the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020) are Takeshi Shioya, Engagement Partner, and Chie Ukai, Engagement Partner, both of PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata LLC.

3) As an internal audit function, the Company has established an Audit Department (comprising eight persons) as its Internal Audit Department under the direct control of the President and CEO. The Audit Department conducts regular internal audits of the Company and its domestic and overseas Group companies, from the perspective of confirming operational effectiveness, efficiency, compliance, and asset preservation. Audit results are reported to all Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and improvement proposals and follow-ups are implemented.

(5) Limitation of liability of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

The Company has entered into a limited liability contract with Directors (excluding executive directors) and Audit & Supervisory Board Members which limits their liability for damages prescribed in Article 423, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, pursuant to the provisions of Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. The limit of liability for damages of Directors (excluding executive directors) or Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members pursuant to the limited liability contract is the aggregate sum of the amounts prescribed in each item in Article 425, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act.

3. Reason for Adopting the Current Governance System

Since its public listing, the Company has strengthened its corporate governance through its current form of business management centered on the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board, and by electing and increasing of the number of Outside Directors, and by promoting the establishment of the Nominating Committee, Remuneration Committee, and Governance Committee as advisory panels for the Board of Directors. Because results have hitherto grown steadily under this system of corporate governance, the Company judges that this system has been functioning effectively, and the selection of this system is also appropriate as of present.

Moreover, to enhance corporate governance and further improve its corporate value, since the Company elected one Outside Director at the 58th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, held on April 28, 2015, the number of Outside Directors has been increased bringing the current total number of Outside Directors to five.

Also, as an advisory board for the Board of Directors, the Company established nomination and compensation committees headed by Outside Directors with a majority of Outside Director members. Through Outside Directors being involved in decisions concerning nomination and compensation in which independence, objectivity, and transparency is required, the Company has set up a framework in which the transparency of management is ensured.

Furthermore, as a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board, the Company appoints four Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including two Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members), who supervise the legality of the decision-making of the Board of Directors. In Japan, audit & supervisory board members are granted significant powers under the Companies Act for the purpose of auditing and supervising directors, including the power to attend and state their opinions at meetings of the Board of Directors and the power to investigate the operations and assets of the company they audit. Furthermore, the term of office of an audit & supervisory board member is guaranteed to be four years. The two Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members not only supervise the legality of the conduct of Directors in consideration of the interests of shareholders, which is a legal role of Audit & Supervisory Board Members, but also sufficiently fulfill their supervisory roles by means such as providing advice regarding the appropriateness of management decisions, in consideration of the enhancement of corporate value.

V Others

1. Presence or Absence of Introduction of Takeover Defense

Introduction of Takeover Defense	No

Supplementary Explanation Relating to These Items

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on March 6, 2008, with the goal of ensuring and enhancing the corporate value of the Company and the common interests of the shareholders, the Company prescribed a basic policy on the Company's corporate control (referred to below as "the Basic Policy"). In light of the Basic Policy, as a measure to prevent inappropriate persons from controlling decisions on the Company's financial and business policies, by resolution at the 51st Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on April 28, 2008, the Company obtained approval for and introduced Measures for the Large-Scale Purchase of Company Shares (Anti-Takeover Measures) (referred to below as "the Plan"). However, taking into consideration that procedures on large-scale purchases of company shares were partly put in place as a result of revisions, etc., of the legal system, the Company judged that the steady execution of the Medium-Term Management Plan leads to ensuring and enhancing the corporate value of the Company and thus the common interests of the shareholders. Therefore, by resolution of the Board of Directors at its meeting held on March 7, 2011, as of the conclusion of the 54th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on April 27, 2011, the Basic Policy was discontinued and the Plan expired.

Furthermore, even after expiration of the Plan, if the Company recognizes a situation where there are transactions and transfers of the Company's shares, and if a person who performs the act of a large-scale purchase of company shares (referred to below as "large-scale purchaser") appears, after carefully considering the opinions, etc., of the Company's Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members and external experts, the Company shall assess the contents of the proposal from the large-scale purchaser and, as necessary, hold negotiations with the said large-scale purchaser. Likewise, when it is rationally judged that, if prompt measures are not taken, there is a risk that the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders will be damaged, as a proper duty of the Company's Board of Directors, to which management was entrusted by the shareholders, the Board of Directors shall actively request to the large-scale purchaser that the large-scale purchaser disclose information, and it shall strive to secure information and time for the shareholders to make an appropriate decision. In addition, as necessary, the Board of Directors shall promptly determine the necessity and contents, etc., of concrete countermeasures, which is considered to be the most appropriate within the scope permitted by the Companies Act, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, and the related laws or regulations, and, by taking steps to execute the countermeasures, it will strive to ensure the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the shareholders.

2. Other Items Relating to Corporate Governance System, etc.

● Status of Implementation of the Internal Control System

Both Committees are established under the supervision of the President and CEO. Moreover, these Risk Management Committees have cooperated to develop a system that allows for the prompt review and implementation of responses to minimize losses and effect recovery, in case that a large-scale disaster or other risk to the Pigeon Group occurs. The Risk Management Committees are convened when necessary. Details of the various risks, which have been identified and evaluated by the said Committees, and the corresponding responses for risks, shall be aggregated by the GHO Risk Management Committee, and reported each year to the Management Committee or Board of Directors.

- Compliance

The Pigeon Group has defined a Corporate Ethics Guidelines, which forms its basic policy regarding compliance. It consists of the Corporate Ethics Policies, which is a universal policy for implementing compliance management in line with the “Pigeon Way,” which forms the basis of our spirit and actions as well as the foundation for all activities, and the Code of Conduct, which is a guideline that provides concrete examples of the Corporate Ethics Policies for each employee, for a variety of corporate activities. The Corporate Ethics Policies declare that each employee of the Pigeon Group, in compliance with all laws and regulations as well as social standards and the spirit, acts with sincerity and a high ethical sense, and serve as the guidelines to win the deep trust and support of its stakeholders. Accordingly, the Representative Directors and all Directors have been taking initiatives for thoroughly promulgating this spirit of ethics and compliance in recognition of the importance of continuing to communicate its corporate philosophy and the values of management to all employees of the Group companies.

Compliance education is conducted via e-learning. Through the implementation of corporate ethics training and other means at Group companies in Japan and overseas, we ensure that all Group employees are aware of compliance. Furthermore, the Act on Prohibition of Private Monopolization and Maintenance of Fair Trade, the Act against Unjustifiable Premiums and Misleading Representations, and other laws etc., related to the Company’s business, compliance issues such as harassment, as well as compliance matters that are likely to occur in everyday operations are taken up in the monthly Pigeon Compliance Report, which is distributed to every employee for the purpose of deepening their understanding of the concept and the ways of dealing with such matters, etc. Additionally, monitoring is conducted periodically, as a survey to gauge and improve the degree of awareness and knowledge of compliance of each employee, and is used as means of improving compliance measures among others.

With regard to reporting systems, a “Speak-up Desk” and a “Pigeon Partners’ Line” have been established, respectively for inside and outside the company, including our business partners. In the event that problems are detected inside or outside the company, the Risk Management Committee reviews appropriate responses and investigates the facts as necessary, while sufficient consideration is given to protect the reporting/consulting individual. As seen in such efforts among others, a system for the early resolution of problems has been put in place. The level of appropriateness is also ensured by consulting with a corporate attorney, as necessary.

The details of the compliance education and the reports received via the internal reporting system are reported to the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board each year.

In providing customers with products, services and information, the Pigeon Group considers information security and personal information protection to be an important task. Furthermore, with regard to its personal information protection system, as evidence of its being an enterprise that handles personal information appropriately in conformity with JIS Q 15001:1999, the “Requirements for compliance program on personal information protection” (currently JIS Q15001:2006, “Personal information protection management systems”), the Company received PrivacyMark certification from the Japan Information Processing Development Corporation, an incorporated foundation that operates the PrivacyMark® System, in
