Delivery and Take-out Sales

Increase guest count with tasty and affordable Chinese food: strengthen the 500-600 yen range for noodles and rice, introduce value-priced dim sum menu, and strengthen alcohol line-up

Noodles:

Develop basic and delicious products in the 500-600 yen range

- Rice: Strengthen products in the 500-600 yen range
- Expand dim sum menu to attract new customers: Expand menu items that women and seniors will want to order

Menu Strategy: Syabu-Yo, Jonathan's

Appeal to young families and women with a lower "entry price" and propose a delicious and fun Syabu-Yo. Introduce attractive options to encourage additional orders

- Weekday dinner prices have been revised to make easier to visit the restaurant
- More frequent development of soup, condiments, and dipping sauces for women (seasonal and health-conscious)
- Introduce an attractive plus-one option.

A healthy restaurant where you can enjoy meat and vegetables: Domestic vegetables, seasonal ingredients, high quality steaks; review set prices

- Expansion of products using domestic vegetables
- Introduce seasonal ingredients as spot menus
- Have high quality steaks always be available on the menu

Menu strategy: Yumean, Aiya

Menu variety which warrants daily use (enhance variety and improve quality of noodles such as soba and udon) Become an all-purpose Japanese restaurant. Strengthen alcohol line-up

- Expanded selection of soba and udon menu items
- Introduce seasonal and newsworthy menus.
- Capture demand for alcohol and desserts

Expand the range of noodles and set products in a price range that is easy to use on a daily basis. Spot promotion of seasonal and high value-added ingredients and menus. Strengthen alcohol line-up

- Promote a sense of season, origin, and ingredients.
- Noodle menus that emphasize color for women and seniors
- Expand dessert menu to promote additional orders

Menu strategy: Musashino Mori Coffee, La Ohana

Provide quality and comfort that will impress our customers: Pancakes, desserts, and drinks made with seasonal fresh fruits served in season

- Expand line-up of pancakes using seasonal fruits
- Increase store proficiency
- Realization of consistent quality

Recreate your memories of Hawaii. Provide a "Fun Hawaii" time with Food, Service and Atmosphere

- To a quality that makes the customer want to come on their special day
- Increase store proficiency
- Realization of consistent quality

Respond to cost increases (Menu & production)

Achieve quality improvement and cost reduction at the same time

Quality improvement and cost reduction through in-house production of noodles (Udon, soba, ramen, etc.)

Promote in-house production at our MDCs, and increase utilization rate

Products for e-commerce and retail sales to be increased from 1 to 12 items

Automated vegetable weighing and filling, reducing the number of hours spent by 10,000 compared to 2021

Start of automated in-MDC transport experiment by introducing transport robots

Optimization of our logistics network

Change store delivery frequency from 7 days to 6 days a week Implementation of late-night delivery

Thorough measures to reduce food loss

Manage food ingredients within their expiration dates by using ingredients that have versatile use.

Conduct menu segmentation to use fresh ingredients and reduce standby loss

Expansion of EC Business & Retail Sales

Plans to start selling retail products through the Skylark app from March

Expanding product line-up of our popular items from 4 to 16
