Announcement on Distributing Video Program of Business Alliance Progress

We shall hereby announce that we have posted the following video on our YouTube channel to provide an explanation of the progress of our business alliance. The presentation is conducted in Japanese with the transcript provided in Japanese and English.

As we continue to grow through our partnership strategy, we recognize that investors are particularly interested in new partnerships with companies and organizations in a variety of industries. Since we have received many inquiries since our recent announcement, we have decided to create an explanation program.
