(Change in accounting policy)

From the beginning of the first quarter of the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022, the Group has adopted the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition (Accounting Standard Board of Japan [ASBJ] No. 29, March 31, 2020). As a result, the Group now recognizes revenue at the time control of promised goods or services is transferred to the customer in the amount it expects to receive in exchange for the goods or services. Previously, for contracts for construction projects and custom software development, the Group applied the percentage-of-completion method for those for which the results of the proportion of work completed could be reliably confirmed and the completed-contract method for all others. However, from the first quarter of the fiscal year under review, for performance obligations to be satisfied over a period of time, except for construction and software development projects for which the period is extremely short, the Group estimates progress toward satisfying the performance obligations and recognizes revenue based on the estimated progress over a period of time. For performance obligations to be satisfied at a single point in time, the Group recognizes revenue at the time of completion of construction or software development. Progress toward satisfying performance obligations is estimated using the ratio of costs incurred to total estimated costs (the input method). Note, however, that for construction and software development contracts for which the period from the starting date of the transaction to the expected time of satisfying performance obligations is extremely short, the Group applies an alternative accounting method, and instead of recognizing revenue over a period of time, recognizes revenue at the time all performance obligations have been satisfied.

The Group has applied the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition and other related accounting standards in accordance with the transitional treatment prescribed in the proviso of Paragraph 84 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition. The cumulative effect of retroactively applying the new accounting policy to periods prior to the beginning of the first quarter of the fiscal year under review was reflected in retained earnings at the beginning of said period, and the new accounting policy has been applied starting from the beginning balance of said period. However, in accordance with the method prescribed in the Paragraph 86 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, the new accounting policy was not retroactively applied to contracts prior to the beginning of the first quarter of the fiscal year under review for which almost all revenue amounts were recognized based on the previous accounting standards. Further, based on the method provided in item (1) of the supplementary provisions of Paragraph 86 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, for contracts to which changes were made prior to the beginning of the first quarter of the fiscal year under review, an accounting treatment was applied based on the contractual terms that reflected all the changes, and the cumulative effect of this application was reflected in retained earnings at the beginning of said period.

As a result, in the third quarter of fiscal year ending December 31, 2022, net sales was decreased by ¥21 million and also cost of sales by ¥50 million decreased. Each of operating profit, ordinary profit and profit before income taxes was increased by ¥29 million. Further, the balance of retained earnings at the beginning of the fiscal year under review rose by ¥35 million.

As a result of the application of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, etc., "Notes and accounts receivable-trade" shown under the "Current assets" section of the consolidated balance sheet in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 is included in and shown as "Notes receivable-trade, accounts receivable-trade, and contract assets" starting from the first quarter of the fiscal year under review. Note, however, that in accordance with the transitional treatment set forth in the Paragraph 89-2 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, no revision was made to the consolidated balance sheet for the previous fiscal year to comply with the new representation method. Further, based on the transitional treatment prescribed in the Paragraph 28-15 of the Accounting Standard for Quarterly Financial Reporting (ASBJ No. 12, March 31, 2020), no information on the breakdown of revenue arising from contracts concluded with customers in the third of the previous fiscal year has been provided.
