Notes:

1. “Intended disposition Price” is the price to be paid for the Intended Disposition Asset pursuant to the Joint Co-ownership Interest Purchase & Sale Agreement for Trust Beneficiary Interests (excluding national and local consumption taxes, and expenses such as transaction fees, and is rounded down to the nearest million yen).
  2. “Book Value” is defined as the joint co-ownership portion of the trust beneficiary interests (37.5%) the book value of the Intended Disposition Asset as of August 31, 2023.
  3. Under the assumptions for the forecast of business results, the gain on disposition (the amount obtained by deducting the estimated book value of the property on the scheduled disposition date and the estimated amount of various expenses related to the disposition from the Intended disposition Price) from the first disposition is expected to be 1,138 million yen in the fiscal period ending February 2024. Since the gain on dispositions from the second and third dispositions are expected to occur in the fiscal periods ending August 31, 2024 and February 28, 2025, and the actual amount of gain on dispositions may vary, “Gain/Loss on transfer” is the difference between the scheduled Intended disposition Price and Book Value.
  4. The appraisal was commissioned to CBRE K.K., and the “Appraisal value” shows the amount that corresponds to the joint co-ownership portion of the trust beneficiary interests (37.5%) in the appraisal value stated in the relevant appraisal reports as of August 31, 2023.
  5. In accordance with the terms and conditions of the purchase and sale agreement for the Intended Disposition Asset, if the buyer fails to execute the payment terms by the agreed date as well as failing to perform other contractual obligations, LLR has the right to demand the buyer to remedy such breach within a specified amount of time of 10 days or more. If the breach is not remedied within the specified duration, the purchase and sale agreement can be terminated. Moreover, LLR has the right to claim compensation for damages amounting to 10% of the disposition price (However, excluding, consumption tax and local consumption tax). Given that LLR is the seller of the asset, LLR does not bear any financing risk with respect to the buyer's payment obligation.

Even if the forward commitment is breached, it is assumed that the impact to LLR's finances is low.

Note:

Forward commitment, etc. refers to a future purchase/sale that promises settlement and delivery more than one month after the date of the execution of a contract.
