Financial Base for Flexible Investment in Growth Even After the Acquisition OMEDLEY

Leveraging the interest environment in Japan, we plan to use cash on hand and debt (bank loan) for this acquisition. Furthermore, we have already obtained official commitment for a loan from the banks for the full amount of the acquisition. The diagram below shows our balance sheet if we were to finance the entire transaction through debt. Our and GUPPY's operating cash flows are expanding, and by taking a wholly-owned subsidiary and the creation of synergies, it will allow us to continue for flexible investment in growth initiatives even after the acquisition.

Overview of Deal Structure

Taking into account Mr. Hida's<sup>(1)</sup> and GUPPY's wishes, in this M&A transaction, we will adopt a deal structure<sup>(2)</sup> that also accounts for the protection of GUPPY's minority shareholder interests. We will execute a tender offer (JPY 3,250 per share) for minority shareholders<sup>(1)</sup>, and after a squeeze-out, we will have an off-market share transfer from Mr. Hida (JPY 2,931 per share), to make GUPPY's a wholly owned subsidiary of ours.

(1) Mr. Hida means the collective name for Mr. Hida (the largest shareholder) and Guppy Co., Ltd., (the second largest shareholder); and the minority shareholders include the share option holders. (2) The shareholding ratio in the above chart are calculated based on the total number of issued upon exercise of share options, excluding treasury stock. The above chart shows the case where there will be no fractional shares held by Mr. Hida at the squeeze-out transaction. In the event where Mr. Hida has any fractional shares at the squeeze-out transaction, the total amount paid to Mr. Hida, including the purchase price of the fractional shares from Mr. Hida, will be JPY 6,378 million.

Y's PnL is consolidated in April 2024, we expect that the impact on Medley's FY24 consolidated vill be roughly at least +JPY 2,125 million in sales and at least +JPY 482 million in EBITDA. At this nergies have not been been factored into these figures. Accordingly, we will make revisions based esults of examinations, which will start after July 2024, of initiatives we plan to implement.

ghted average price of the tender offer price JPY 3,250 per share and the off-market share price JPY 2,931 per share is JPY 3,070 per share. We believe each price is appropriate as it falls ne results of the DCF analysis by Mizuho Securities (Medley's financial advisor), which was n business projection plans closely examined and modified by Medley through interviews and ness plan received from GUPPY's Inc.

t to 2 above, we believe that impairment risks can be controlled. After announcing the Tender plan to promptly implement PMI (post merger integration - synergy creation process) with the tion of GUPPY's to further reduce impairment risks (steady achievement of the business plan).

ect that the pay-back period will conservatively be about 7 to 8 years. An even earlier pay-back expected depending on contributions from synergies.

nto account the burden of goodwill amortization expenses post a successful acquisition, in the rm we expect only a minor negative impact to EPS; and in the mid to long term, we expect a impact due to profit growth. We plan to go through accounting procedures that allocate the ion costs (PPA – purchase price allocation) and finalize the specific amount of goodwill ation expenses once the Tender Offer successfully settles.

e end of Sept. 2023, Medley has JPY 15.4 billion in cash on hand; but we plan to use debt, part or in whole, to finance this acquisition in order to be able to flexibly invest in future opportunities (outside of this acquisition).

ime we have no plans to raise equity to finance this acquisition.
