

Notice on Change in Subsidiary's Representative Director

SBI Holdings, Inc. (hereinafter "SBIH") hereby announces that SBI Savings Bank (renamed from Hyundai Swiss Savings Bank on 1 September 2013; hereinafter "SBI Savings Bank") of South Korea, a subsidiary of SBIH, will change its Representative Director after receiving approval at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders and a subsequent Board of Directors meeting, both to be held on 23 September 2013.

1. Name and career summary of the candidate for the new Representative Director

Name: Kim Chong Ouk (Date of Birth: 26 January 1957)

Career summary

May 1980	Administrative Officer of State Tobacco Monopoly Administration of South Korea (Currently, KT&G)
July 1982	Credit Manager of Chase Manhattan Bank (Currently, JPMorgan Chase & Co.), Seoul Branch
August 1986	Director of KPMG San Tong Co., Ltd.

July 2004	Executive Officer, President and CFO of Eugene Corporation (Listed on the KOSDAQ market of the Korea Exchange)
March 2010	Representative Director and CEO of Connex Partners Co., Ltd.

2. Reason for the change

SBI Savings Bank became a consolidated subsidiary of SBIH at the end of March 2013, and then reformed its management system. With the renaming on 1 September 2013, SBI Savings Bank further clarified its position as a member of the SBI Group, renewing its corporate image. Through these moves, SBI Savings Bank is improving its management.

This time, in order to further accelerate its management improvement, SBI Savings Bank has decided to appoint Kim Jong-wook, who has extensive experience as a corporate executive and broad personnel networks not only in South Korean financial circles but also in the country's political and business circles, as Representative Director. Under the management structure, which is expected to be strengthened by appointing Kim Jong-wook as Representative Director, SBI Savings Bank will proactively operate businesses aiming for an early improvement in earnings.

3. Scheduled date of appointment

23 September 2013

(Kim Jong-wook will be appointed as Representative Director after receiving approval at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors meeting, both to be held on the same day.)
