Notice Regarding Partial Acquisition of Shares in GMO CLICK Holdings, Inc. and Execution of Memorandum as to Consideration of Business Collaboration

The memorandum as to consider business collaboration was executed between the group of Daiwa Securities Group Inc. (“DSGI”) and its subsidiary, Daiwa Securities Co. Ltd. (“DS”) (collectively “DS Group”) and the group of GMO CLICK Holdings, Inc. (“GCH”) and its consolidated subsidiary, GMO CLICK Securities, Inc. (“GCS”) (collectively “GC Group”).

Also, DSGI made a decision to acquire a part of shares in GCH from GMO Internet, Inc. (“GI”).

1. Circumstances and Purpose of Collaboration

From April 2015, DS Group made a start for further breakthrough, holding up “Passion for the Best” 2017, its new Medium-term Management Plan covering 3 years starting in FY2015. In this plan, DS Group uses the basic policy, “In response to the full-fledged start of an era of transition from savings to investment, attract customers with the industry’s top quality, and become their best partner”. DS Group is now working on the establishment of the platform which provides optimal products and comfortable information access in order to be the securities company group chosen by a wide range of customers including the young and the retired.

GMO Internet Group with GMO Internet, Inc. as the core of the group operates in four business segments, “Internet Infrastructure”, “Online Advertising & Media”, “Internet Securities”, and “Mobile Entertainment” as a comprehensive Internet Group, based on the corporate slogan “Internet for Everyone”. Within the Group, the core part of the “Internet Securities”, GC Group develops online finance-related business mainly for retail customers, “wishing to make finance more open and accessible for everyone”. GC Group provides various financial products such as stocks, FX, CFD and the like. In the field of FX, GCS has continued to grow, reached the No.1 position in the world as to trading volume and has retained this No.1 position for three consecutive years since 2012.

This time, both groups have come to this execution of memorandum, expecting that they can increase their corporate value by mutually utilizing managerial resources of each other and improving their customers’ convenience and quality of services, and also, DSGI made a decision to acquire a part of shares in GCH.

2. Contents of Business Collaboration

Both groups intend to establish a cooperative framework to provide advanced financial services to be chosen by customers, by means of combining together (i) DS Group’s firm business foundation and know-how in securities business that DS Group has cultivated as general securities company group and (ii) GC Group’s ability to develop systems independently and its high marketing capacity. Both groups also intend to discuss the attractive services such as FX and stock trades which make use of the characteristics of the both groups and aim for execution of the business collaboration agreement which defines contents in detail by the end of March, 2016.

3. Contents of Partial Acquisition of Shares

DSGI acquires a part of shares in GCH which GI owns (i.e. 11,100,000 shares corresponding to approximately 9.6% of the total number of shares outstanding as of September 30, 2015). In addition, both groups plan to discuss with each other continuously about the possibility that DSGI acquires additional shares in GCH in the future up to about 20% of the total number of shares outstanding (including shares acquired today), based on the progress and outcome of business collaboration between DS and GC Group.
