(2) Management Status

1) Overview of Fiscal Period under Review

a) Milestones of JPR

Japan Prime Realty Investment Corporation (JPR) was established on September 14, 2001 under the Act on Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations (Act No. 198 of 1951, as amended; hereafter, the Investment Trusts Act), and was listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange (TSE) Real Estate Investment Trust Section (securities code: 8955) on June 14, 2002 with 289,600 outstanding investment units. With the subsequently implemented public offerings and other capital raising measures by JPR, the number of investment units issued and outstanding totals 873,000 units at present. JPR has assigned the asset management of its portfolio to Tokyo Realty Investment Management, Inc., through which JPR aims to maximize unitholder value by efficiently managing the portfolio primarily comprising office properties and retail properties.

b) Management Environment

In the 29th fiscal period, the Japanese economy saw a shift toward the stronger yen and lower stock prices at the beginning of the year and thereafter due to concerns about slowdown of overseas economies and other factors. Although the employment environment continued to be positive, consumer spending remained stagnant. Worries about the impact of the stronger yen on corporate earnings, which had been robust, also arose under such conditions. Moreover, a keen awareness was spread during the six months about the risk factors outside Japan, with the issue of the U.K. leaving the E.U. as a most recent example.

The Office Property Leasing Market

The supply and demand balance in the office property leasing market of the 23 wards of Tokyo further improved due to new demand for such positive development as setting up new offices, expanding the office spaces and moving to better locations continued to be strong, which worked to absorb new supply. The upward trend of the rent levels for new contracts also continued, although at a moderate pace.

The Retail Property Leasing Market

The need of tenants to open stores remained strong for urban retail properties in which JPR targets for investment. Despite some obscurity noticed in the outlook of consumption by inbound foreign tourists, the market has been in good shape for urban retail properties in good locations, such as Ginza, Omotesando and Shinsaibashi.

The For-Sale Real Estate Market

Although investors remain highly willing to purchase properties, transaction volume in the market has shown a decreasing trend, and property transaction prices are steadily being formed at a high level. Meanwhile, investments have continuously been made in properties located in regional cities as well as in projects related to inbound demand, such as hotels and urban retail properties. With low-yield transactions continuing to prevail, the acquisition environment remains harsh for players focusing on yields. Accordingly, REITs have somewhat decelerated the pace at which they conduct new listings and expansion of assets size with funds through public offerings.

c) Portfolio Management Status

New Property Acquisitions

JPR investigates possible investments mainly in office properties in the Tokyo area, plus retail properties and office properties in regional cities, with the primary aim of improving the quality of the portfolio and achieving stable growth of its earnings while paying attention to balancing diversification of the portfolio, both in terms of location and asset type.

During the 29th fiscal period, JPR investigated possible investments primarily in office properties in central Tokyo and retail properties in Greater Tokyo, but no acquisition was closed and completed. As of the end of June 2016, the balance of JPR's assets under management totaled 62 properties, or 410.3 billion yen on an acquisition price basis, with the total leasable floor space standing at 476,345m² and the number of tenants reaching 661.

Operational Management of Portfolio

In the office property leasing market in the 29th fiscal period, the vacancy rate stayed at a low level, given a more advanced improvement in the supply and demand balance in Tokyo and other areas. Under such circumstances, JPR endeavored to attract new tenants through strategic leasing activities and enhance the satisfaction of existing tenants by keeping close cooperation with property management companies and brokers, with an aim of enhancing earnings from the entire portfolio and improving occupancy rates. As a result, the occupancy rate increased 0.7 points period-on-period to 98.1% at the end of the fiscal period.

In terms of property management, based on JPR's brand concept A/3S (Amenity/Service, Safety and Save Energy), JPR continued to proactively implement value enhancement works based on tenant needs with the aim to create spaces where the workers feel satisfaction. As an endeavor to implement energy-saving measures, JPR conducted renovation of air-conditioning systems and replacement of lighting equipment with LED lamps, which are expected to be effective for the endeavor, at its multiple properties.

Meanwhile, JPR is continuously working to obtain environmental certifications (the DBJ Green Building Certification*1 and the recognition by GRESB*2). As of the end of the 29th fiscal period, JPR has obtained the DBJ Green Building Certification for 14 of the buildings it owns. In the GRESB survey conducted in 2015, JPR was designated as "Green Star," marking the second consecutive year of recognition with the highest ranking in the survey. GRESB also selected JPR as Sector Leader (the first rank) in the Diversified (Retail/Office) sector in Asia.

- *1 The DBJ Green Building Certification is a certification system by Development Bank of Japan Inc., designed to select superior real estate that meets the demand of the times, with a purpose of promoting properties that are environmentally friendly, equipped to mitigate disaster and prevent crime, as well as meet the various social requirements surrounding real estate from stakeholders ("Green Buildings").
- *2 GRESB, which stands for Global Real Estate Sustainability Benchmark, is a benchmark system for analyzing and evaluating sustainability of real estate companies, REITs and real estate private placement funds, in terms of environmental friendliness and social nature. It is based on surveys conducted by a group of the same name composed of more than 50 organizations worldwide such as European pension asset managers.

Fund Procurement

JPR is engaged in debt financing with more emphasis placed on the diversification of repayment dates through lengthening the maturity of interest-bearing debts, in an effort to further reinforce its strong and solid financial base against the backdrop of the favorable fund procurement environment and low interest rates. In the 29th fiscal period, JPR borrowed 14.0 billion yen to fund the repayment of 14.1 billion yen in loans that matured during the fiscal period. The average maturity and average debt cost (Note 1) of the new borrowing stood at 9.3 years and 0.66%, respectively, in contrast to 4.7 years and 1.27% for the relevant loans before refinancing, achieving longer maturities and lower debt costs.

As of the end of the 29th fiscal period, the balance of interest-bearing debts totaled 176.1 billion yen, with total outstanding borrowings of 134.6 billion yen and investment corporation bonds of 41.5 billion yen. The ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets (Note 2) was 42.1%, long-term and fixed interest-bearing debt ratio (Note 3) was 100.0%, average debt cost was 1.16% and average maturity (Note 4) was 4.2 years as of the end of the fiscal period.

Moreover, JPR established a commitment line with a credit limit of 28 billion yen with seven financial institutions.

The following represents the issuer ratings for JPR as of the end of this fiscal period.

Details of Corporate Credit Ratings as of June 30, 2016

Credit Rating Agency	Corporate Credit Rating
010010110011151150110	Corporate Create reading

Rating and Investment Information, Inc.	AA- (Stable)
Standard & Poor's Ratings Japan K.K.	Long-term: A (Stable) Short-term: A-1

(Note 1) Average debt cost: sum total of interest expenses, interest expenses on investment corporation bonds, borrowing expenses (excluding expenses for early repayment of borrowings and for commitment line agreements), amortization of investment corporation bond issuance costs and investment corporation bond management expenses, divided by the number of business days for each fiscal period and annualized by multiplying by 365 days / average balance of borrowings and investment corporation bonds for each fiscal period

(Note 2) Ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets: (balance of borrowings + balance of investment corporation bonds)/ total assets

(Note 3) Long-term and fixed interest-bearing debt ratio: long-term, fixed-interest interest-bearing debt / total interest-bearing debt

(Note 4) Average maturity is arrived at by calculating a weighted average of maturities from the end of the 29th fiscal period to the repayment deadlines for all interest-bearing debts based on the balance of each interest-bearing debt.

d) Operating Results and Cash Distributions

As a result of the aforementioned management performance, JPR posted operating revenues of 14,246 million yen, ordinary income of 5,897 million yen and net income of 5,896 million yen for its 29th fiscal period ended June 30, 2016. With regard to the cash distributions, JPR decided to distribute part of the retained earnings brought forward that had been internally reserved through the 28th fiscal period, with the aim of having the profit distributions deducted as expenses based on application of the special provision on taxation of investment corporations (Article 67-15 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation) and in order to minimize the burden to unitholders incurred by accrual of corporate income tax, etc. As a result, the cash distribution per unit came to 6,756 yen for the 29th fiscal period.

2) Forecast for the Next Fiscal Period

a) Outlook for Management Status

Looking ahead, some uncertainty is being felt about the prospects for the Japanese economy, due to such factors as a decrease in corporate earnings under the influence of the stronger yen and a prolonged stagnation of consumer spending. Moreover, caution should be taken with respect to the risks that may push the Japanese economy downward, such as downside swings of overseas economies.

In the office property leasing market, new supply in the 23 wards of Tokyo is projected to remain subdued through 2017. Considering this, and if the economy remains strong, the market situation in general is likely to steadily show a moderate recovery amid continued improvement in the supply and demand condition, while polarization by property will keep progressing. In this regard, JPR believes it will be able to fully enjoy the positive impact of the market recovery as it has focused on improving tenant satisfaction through proactive implementation of value enhancement works and provision of elaborate management services. Going forward, when conducting real estate transactions in the market where polarization of earnings by property is anticipated to further advance, it will become even more important to discern the growth potential in earnings of respective properties. Considering the situation in which cap rates are decreasing in a low interest rate environment, it is required to firmly keep the attitude of vigorously selective investment for implementing real estate investment that assumes possession of properties over the medium to long term.

i) Acquisition of New Properties and Asset Replacement

JPR will continue to make investment focused on the Tokyo office properties, with an aim to improve the quality of its portfolio and enhance its growth potential over the long term. Given the briskness in the office property leasing market, the transaction market sees a decrease in purchase cap rate and expected cap rate levels. Moreover, with the transaction volume trending to decrease, there are deals closed at prices that have factored in lower cap rates and rent increases. Accordingly, JPR will fully investigate the growth potential of such properties when acquiring them. As for retail properties as well as office properties in regional cities, JPR will work to invest in strictly selected blue-chip properties that can keep stable revenues at a certain level in order to complement the stability of earnings from the entire portfolio. JPR will strive to acquire new properties under reasonable terms by negotiating prices based on detailed market studies and property due diligence in considering properties.

Moreover, JPR will continue to make investment decisions after a proactive collection of information through such sources as sponsors of the Asset Management Company (Tokyo Tatemono Co., Ltd., Taisei Corporation, Yasuda Real Estate Co., Ltd., Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Insurance Inc. and Meiji Yasuda Life Insurance Company), accurately grasping market trends and carefully researching investment value, including the future potential of candidate properties.

Furthermore, JPR will also investigate asset replacement in a prudent manner, while taking into consideration the long term timing of improving the quality and enhancing the growth of the portfolio going forward.

ii) Management of Portfolio

JPR will aim to secure stable earnings over a medium to long term by working to prevent move-outs of existing tenants, encourage them to expand office spaces in the same buildings and renew contracts with upward revision of rents through endeavors to enhance tenant satisfaction, while continuously inviting new tenants through strategic leasing activities. Specifically, JPR will conduct management and operations based on the following policies:

- Strengthen coordination with property management companies and respective tenant brokers
- Propose leasing terms and conditions on the assumption of the leasing market showing a recovery trend, and accelerate decision making
- Conduct strategic value enhancement works with intent to improve property earnings and tenant satisfaction
- Reinforce promotion of energy efficiency as well as responses to business continuity plans and environmental friendliness that command high social request
- Conduct renovations to enhance energy-saving performance of the properties by utilizing the government's subsidy programs

iii) Fund Procurement

In accordance with its basic policy of implementing conservative financial operations that focus on stability, JPR will remain engaged in conservative leverage control, targeting to basically keep the ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets at up to 50%. In debt financing, JPR will endeavor to further lengthen the maturity with a focus on stability in an effort to diversify the repayment dates and reduce the repayment amount for each fiscal period, with an eye on reducing refinancing risks that may arise in accordance with future changes in the financial environment. Moreover, JPR intends to work on fund procurement through issuance of investment corporation bonds as it aims to diversify fund procurement means and sources.

iv) Information Disclosure

Positioning the proactive voluntary disclosure of information as one of its key management policies, JPR voluntarily discloses information believed to be useful to investment decisions, along with the information disclosure required by the Tokyo Stock Exchange and set forth by laws and regulations, etc. As a means for implementing voluntary disclosure, JPR is proactively employing its website (http://www.jpr-reit.co.jp/en/) to provide expanded information including monthly occupancy rates of all properties in the portfolio and historical data, as well as offer information for retail investors and deliver video presentation on financial results sessions for securities analysts. Going forward, we are committed to further enriching the disclosure contents and providing information in a timely manner.

v) Significant Subsequent Events

There are no material subsequent events for this fiscal period.

b) Outlook for Management Status (Operating Results) for the 30th fiscal period JPR expects the following management status in the 30th fiscal period (from July 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016).

		30th Fiscal Period
Operating r	evenues	15,055 million yen
Operating income 7,129 milli
Ordinary in	come	6,111 million yen
Net income		6,111 million yen
Distribution	n per unit	7,000 yen
	Exceeding profit distribution per unit	0 yen

For the assumptions underlying this outlook for management status, please refer to "Assumptions for the 30th Fiscal Period Forecast (July 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016)" shown below.

(Note) The forecast figures above are the current forecasts calculated based on certain assumptions. Accordingly, the actual operating revenues, operating income, ordinary income, net income, distribution per unit and exceeding profit distribution per unit may vary due to changes in the circumstances. Moreover, the forecast above should not be construed as a guarantee of the distribution amount.

Assumptions for the 30th Fiscal Period Forecast (July 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016)

Item	Assumptions
Period	Fiscal period ending December 31, 2016 (30th fiscal period): July 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016 (investment period: 184 days)
Property Portfolio	 The number of properties is assumed to be 61 properties, or the 62 properties held by JPR as of August 12, 2016 less one property that JPR expects to sell. Furthermore, the assumed period-average occupancy rate at end of month is 98.3% for the 30th fiscal period. Although no decision on the sale has been made as of today, it is assumed that the above-mentioned property JPR expects to sell will be sold during the 30th fiscal period. As such, part of the rental revenues and rental expenses of the property has been excluded from the forecast. In practice, these assumptions may vary due to such events as the acquisition of additional properties or the sale of existing properties other than the above-mentioned property.
Operating Revenues	 Real estate rental revenues are calculated on the basis of the lease contracts effective as of the end of the 29th fiscal period, with consideration given to the market environment, competitiveness of the properties, status of negotiations with tenants and other factors. For operating revenues, JPR assumes that rents will be paid on time and that no tenants will fail or decline to pay rents. JPR assumes 622 million yen for cancellation charges received and income equivalent to expenses for restoration in accordance with contract cancellation by tenants.
Operating Expenses	 Among rental expenses, which are the principal operating expenses, outsourcing expenses and other expenses excluding depreciation are calculated based on historical data, reflecting variable factors of expenses and considering the information as of the end of the 29th fiscal period. Outsourcing expenses are assumed to be 547 million yen for the 30th fiscal period. For property taxes and city planning taxes, the amount attributed to the relevant fiscal period is calculated out of the levied tax amount, and is assumed to be 2,058 million yen for the 30th fiscal period. In general practice, the property taxes and city planning taxes levied on properties acquired are settled after prorating for the period with the previous owner at the time of acquisition, but JPR includes the amount equivalent to such settlement in the acquisition costs for the property. For expenditures for the repair and maintenance of buildings, the amount expected to be required in the relevant fiscal period has been recorded. However, the expenditures for repair and maintenance for the fiscal period could differ significantly from the estimated amount, as expenditures may arise due to damage to the building caused by unexpected factors, etc., and because the variance in amounts generally tends to grow from year to year and repair expenses do not arise regularly. Depreciation is calculated using the straight line method, including incidental expenses and additional future capital expenditures. Depreciation is assumed to be 1,888 million yen for the 30th fiscal period. Although no decision on the sale has been made as of today, JPR assumes accrual of 299 million yen as loss on sale of real estate from the sale of a property it owns. The actual amount may vary depending on success or failure in closing the deal, sale price, delivery date and other conditions.
Non-Operating Expenses	• As for major non-operating expenses, JPR assumes 1,012 million yen for the 30th fiscal period for interest paid, fees related to loan arrangement, interest expenses on investment corporation bonds and amortization of investment corporation bond issuance costs, etc.
Interest-Bearing Debt Ratio	 The ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets as of August 12, 2016 stands at 42.1%, with interest-bearing debt of 176,126 million yen (comprised of 134,626 million yen in long-term debt and 41,500 million yen in investment corporation bonds). It is assumed that all borrowings whose repayment dates will arrive during the 30th fiscal period will be refinanced, except for scheduled repayment of 166 million yen. It is assumed that funds for redemption of investment corporation bonds whose redemption date will arrive during the 30th fiscal period will be secured through debt or issuance of investment corporation bonds. Due to the above, the ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets is expected to be 42.0% at the end of the 30th fiscal period. The following formula is used in calculating the ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets in this table. Ratio of interest-bearing debt to total assets = Expected total interest-bearing debt / Expected total assets x 100
Total Units Outstanding	• The total number of investment units issued and outstanding is 873,000 units as of August 12, 2016, and it is assumed that no additional investment units will be issued.

Distribution Per Unit	 As for distribution per unit, it is assumed that all revenues will be distributed based on the distribution methods provided in the Articles of Incorporation. There is the possibility that the distribution per unit may vary due to various factors including variation of rental revenue due to transfer of assets under management and tenants moving out, and unpredicted repairs and maintenance.
Exceeding Profit Distribution Per Unit	Distribution exceeding the profit (exceeding profit distribution per unit) is currently not assumed.
Others	 It is assumed that there will be no changes in legislation, taxation, accounting standards, regulations applying to publicly listed companies, rules and requirements imposed by the Investment Trusts Association, Japan that will impact the aforementioned forecast. It is also assumed that there will be no unexpected material changes in general economic and real estate market conditions.

(3) Investment Risks

Financial Instruments

1. Matters Concerning Status of Financial Instruments

(1) Policy for Financial Instruments

In an aim to proactively expand asset size and maintain stable cash distributions to unitholders, JPR adopts the asset management policy of paying heed to efficiently combining the procurement of long-term funds that are stable and the procurement of short-term funds that emphasize flexibility.

There may be cases where JPR will engage in derivative transactions, but such will be limited to management for interest rate fluctuation risk and other hedging purposes. Please note that JPR is not engaged in derivative transactions at present.

(2) Description of Financial Instruments and Associated Risks, and Risk Management Structure Tokyo Realty Investment Management, Inc. (TRIM), the asset management company of JPR, strives for risk management by complying with the JPR Asset Management Guidelines and other rules and regulations. The following outlines the description of individual financial instruments and the associated risks, and the risk management.

Deposits are exposed to risks of failure of the financial institutions holding the deposits and other credit risks, but risks are managed through such measures as setting a minimum credit rating for the financial institutions holding the deposits.

Loans payable and investment corporation bonds are exposed to liquidity risks at the time of repayment/redemption, but liquidity risks are managed through such measures as procuring funds from the capital market by increasing capital, executing a commitment line agreement with the main lending financial institutions, and also having statements of cash receipts and disbursements prepared by the financial division.

(3) Supplementary Explanation on Matters Concerning Estimated Fair Value, etc. of Financial Instruments
The estimated fair value of financial instruments, aside from values based on market price includes values based on reasonable calculations when there is no market price. Certain assumptions, etc. are used in calculating those values and there may be cases where the values will vary when different assumptions, etc.
are used.

2. Matters Concerning Estimated Fair Value, etc. of Financial Instruments

The following are the carrying values and estimated fair values as of December 31, 2015, and the difference between these amounts. Please note that the following tables do not include those for which discerning of estimated fair value is recognized to be extremely difficult (please refer to Note 3).

7) Long-term loans payable	(¥109,894,000)	(¥113,558,707)	¥3,664,707

(Note 1) Items stated under liabilities are shown in parentheses.

(Note 2) Method of calculation of estimated fair value of financial instruments

(1) Cash and deposits, and (2) Cash and deposits in trust

As these financial instruments are settled within a short period of time, the estimated fair value is approximately the same as the book value and is thus stated at that book value.

(3) Short-term loans payable

As these financial instruments are settled within a short period of time and have floating interest rates, the estimated fair value is approximately the same as the book value and is thus stated at that book value.

(4) Current portion of long-term loans payable and (7) Long-term loans payable

Of the estimated fair value of these financial instruments, the fair value of long-term loans payable with floating interest rates is based on the book value, as it reflects the market interest rate within a short period of time and thus is considered to be nearly equal to the book value. The fair value of long-term loans payable with fixed interest rates is based on the method of calculating by discounting the total amount of principal and interest by the rate assumed as being applicable in the event of a new drawdown corresponding to the remaining loan term.

(5) Current portion of investment corporation bonds, and (6) Investment corporation bonds

Of the estimated fair value of these financial instruments, those with market price are calculated based on market price and those with no market price are calculated according to the fair value of long-term loans payable with fixed interest rates in (4) and (7) above.

(Note 3) Financial instruments for which discerning of estimated fair value is recognized to be extremely difficult.

Tenant leasehold and security deposits and tenant leasehold and security deposits in trust that are deposited by lessees of lease rental properties are not subject to disclosure of estimated fair value because reasonable estimation of cash flows is recognized to be extremely difficult since there is no market price and also since it is difficult to calculate the actual deposit period from when lessees move in to when they move out. The following is the carrying value of tenant leasehold and security deposits and the carrying value of tenant leasehold and security deposits in trust.

Esti	mated Fair Value at End of Period	¥411,481,000	¥419,881,000

⁽Note 1) The carrying value on the balance sheets is the cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation.

The income (loss) in the 28th and 29th fiscal periods for investment and rental properties are as presented in the "Notes to Statements of Income and Retained Earnings."

⁽Note 2) Of the amount of change during the 28th fiscal period, the amount of increase is primarily attributable to the additional acquisition of Shinjuku Square Tower (807,283 thousand yen), and the amount of decrease is primarily attributable to depreciation (1,875,064 thousand yen). Of the amount of change during the 29th fiscal period, the amount of decrease is primarily attributable to depreciation (1,885,187 thousand yen).

⁽Note 3) The estimated fair value at end of the period is the appraisal value or survey value as appraised by an outside real estate appraiser.

2) Price and Investment Ratio

- "Acquisition Price" is the deal price (rounded down to the nearest million yen) described in the real estate transaction contracts or trust beneficiary interest transfer contracts, and does not include expenses related to acquisitions of the relevant properties and consumption taxes.
- Furthermore, the total amount is also rounded down to the nearest million yen after summing up respective acquisition prices including fractions.
- For "Appraisal Value at End of Period," JPR adopts the assessed value in the real estate appraisal reports or the survey value in the real estate price survey reports, prepared by the real estate appraisers indicated below, based on the asset evaluation method designated by JPR and the rules of The Investment Trusts Association, Japan. The adopted appraisal value has been rounded down to the nearest million yen.

(Note 1) The number of tenants at end of period is counted as follows except for Shinjuku Square Tower, Shinjuku Center Bldg., and Residential part of Science Plaza-Yonbancho Plaza, Rise Arena Bldg. and Kawasaki Dice Bldg.: when a single tenant leases multiple rooms, it is counted as one if the tenant uses the same property. If the leased rooms are in multiple buildings, the tenant is counted in plural.

The tenants of Shinjuku Square Tower, Shinjuku Center Bldg., Residential part of Science Plaza-Yonbancho Plaza, Rise Arena Bldg. and Kawasaki Dice Bldg. have sublet space to sublessees and lease agreements have been executed where the rent paid by the tenants fluctuates in accordance with the lease conditions of the sublessees and thus the numbers of sublessees have been entered as the numbers of tenants.

(Note 2) JPR does not disclose the rental revenues and their ratio of the properties due to inevitable reasons.
