Announcement on Completion of Acquisition of Car Access/Security Business from ASSA ABLOY AB and Revision of Consolidated Annual Financial Forecast

ALPHA Corporation announces that it has now completed all necessary procedures and consummated the acquisition of the Car Access/Security business of ASSA ABLOY AB (hereinafter “Car Lock Business”) as of September 30, 2016. The acquisition of the Car Lock Business was originally announced on March 3, 2016 in the release “ALPHA TO ACQUIRE ASSA ABLOY’S CAR ACCESS/SECURITY BUSINESS” but its completion had been delayed as announced on May 24, 2016.

Also, in light of the completion of the acquisition of the Car Lock Business, we are revising our annual financial projections for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 announced on September 16, 2016.

The acquisition will allow ALPHA to strengthen its capabilities to meet customers’ demand for its products worldwide by establishing a manufacturing and supply base in Europe. ALPHA will also be able to maintain continuous growth through the synergies realizable by the complementary product sets and technological strengths of ALPHA and the Car Lock Business.

1. Overview of the business to be acquired

(1) Business to be acquired	The car access/security business conducted by ASSA ABLOY in the Czech Republic, Mexico, Germany, Switzerland and China.
(2) Financial Performance of Car Lock Business	Sales for Period ending 31December 2013	Sales for Period ending 31December 2014	Sales for Period ending 31December 2015
	€45,114 thousand (¥5,181million)	€56,271 thousand (¥6,463million)	€60,722 thousand (¥6,974million)
(3) Acquisition Price and method of settlement	€ 17 million (¥1,952million) The acquisition price will be paid in cash.

(Note 1) The amounts in Euro were converted into Japanese Yen at the exchange rate prevailing on September 30, 2016 (cutting off amounts less than ¥1 million)

(Note 2) Regarding the ordinary profits (profits from continuing operations), assets and liabilities of the business to be acquired, we have not provided such figures because we are unable to calculate accurate figures due to the fact that the Car Lock Business does not constitute a separate reporting segment in ASSA ABLOY’s external financial statements

September 30, 2016

4. Notes on Accounting for Acquisition

Since the acquisition is conducted under the completion accounts method and will be further subject to PPA (Purchase Price Allocation), it is not possible to ascertain the amount of goodwill at this time.

Therefore, ALPHA will make a separate disclosure as soon as the amount of goodwill becomes known.

5. Impact of the Acquisition on the Company's Financial Results

Although the Car Lock Business' financial results will become subject to consolidation into ALPHA's financial statements, they were not included in the projections for ALPHA's consolidated business results for the period ending March 31, 2017 which was announced on September 16, 2016. Because the performance of the Car Lock Business for the months of October through December 2016 will be consolidated into ALPHA's financial results as a result of the acquisition, we have upwardly revised our projections for our consolidated financial results as following: Sales ¥2.0 billion, Operating Profits ¥100 million, Ordinary Profits ¥100 million, Net Income ¥50 million.
