

August 8, 2017

Japan Display Statement on Today's Media Reports

TOKYO, Japan, August 8, 2017 – Japan Display Inc. (JDI) today responded to this morning's media reports regarding the company's structural reform plan, funding and extraordinary losses, etc. The reports are not based on any statement made by JDI.

JDI recognizes the necessity of comprehensive restructuring in business structure and cost structure in line with the changing market, and plans get approval of the details of the structural reforms at the Board of Directors Meeting scheduled tomorrow, August 9, 2017.

If approved, going forward, business structure improvement expenses such as extraordinary losses will be allocated, of which detail will be announced in line with the execution of the structural reforms.

###