<Reasons for revisions>

The world economy has trended towards a mild recovery, and the electronics industries have made a steady performance led by automobile and industrial equipment markets, so sales of the first half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 have exceeded the initial forecast highly. Also, sales of the second half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 is expected to exceed the initial forecast due to a steady performance led by electronics industries. Operating income is expected to exceed the initial forecast due to the increase of sales and decrease of fixed costs too.

In consideration of occurrence of foreign exchange losses according to the appreciation of the yen and increase of income taxes due to the impact from increasing profit, etc, the company has revised its forecast data of business results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018, announced on May 1, 2017 as above.

In addition, the assumption of exchange rate in the second half of the year ending March 31, 2018 is 1.00 USD = 105 JPY.
