Announcement regarding Changes of Representative Directors

On November 22, 2018 the Company resolved to remove representative rights and position of Chairman of its directors as follows:

1. Reasons for Removals

With respect to Carlos Ghosn, an internal investigation has uncovered the following misconducts directed by him:

- (i) the misconduct of recording compensation amounts in the annual securities report that were less than actual, in order to reduce the amount of his compensation to be disclosed, over many years;
- (ii) the misconduct of expending our company's investment capital for his personal use, under false pretenses;
- (iii) other misconduct, such as expending our company's expenses for personal use.

With respect to Greg Kelly, as a result of an internal investigation he has been determined to be the mastermind of this matter, together with Carlos Ghosn.

The Company will further investigate this matter and consider measures to enhance the Company's governance.
