The state of corporate governance of Japan Exchange Group, Inc. ("the Company" or "JPX") is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The corporate philosophy of the Company is described below. The Company seeks to fulfill its social mission by serving as vital public infrastructure in the form of Japan's central financial instruments market.

<Corporate Philosophy>

- We contribute to the realization of an affluent society by promoting continuous development of the market through ensuring our public nature and credibility, constructing the foundation of the market which is highly convenient, efficient and transparent, and providing creative and attractive services.
- Our efforts bring rewards in the form of profits resulting from the increased support and confidence from investors and other market users.

In order to conduct management in line with its corporate philosophy, the Company is aware of the importance of having its stakeholders understand its corporate philosophy and corporate activities. Therefore, the Company established the basic views on corporate governance from the following four perspectives to help stakeholders understand the Company's business and raise confidence in the Company.

(1) Corporate philosophy and social mission

JPX Group operates markets that are a public asset and fulfills its social mission by pursuing the sustainable development of its markets.

(2) Market operations

JPX Group operates the markets with the view that garnering support for and fostering confidence in the markets it establishes is in the common interest of all investors and market users, and maintaining and enhancing the support and confidence will build the foundations for sustainable development of its markets.

(3) Enhancing corporate value

In pursuing the sustainable development of its markets, the Company must continue to accommodate the diverse needs of shareholders and other stakeholders, and through this the Company will enhance its corporate value over the medium to long term.

(4) Effective corporate governance

The Company strives to constantly improve its corporate governance system to further facilitate effective and proper systems, so as to support the sustainable development of its markets.

Based on the basic views on corporate governance described above, in light of the intent of the individual principles of Japan's Corporate Governance Code, the Company is committed to properly developing its corporate governance system such as by developing a highly effective system of checks achieved through tension and harmony between the management and independent outside directors while striving to facilitate the smooth sharing of information and coordination between them.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with Principles of Japan's Corporate Governance Code]

The Company implements each principle of Japan's Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure Based on Principles of Japan's Corporate Governance Code]

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

Policy regarding cross-shareholdings and results of verifying the appropriateness of cross-shareholdings

If a stronger business relationship or other collaborative initiative can be expected to increase the corporate value of JPX Group over the medium to long term, JPX Group might hold shares issued by other listed companies.

Every year, the board of directors will evaluate individual cross-shareholdings to justify the reason for continuing to maintain such holdings for increasing corporate value. If such continuation is deemed unnecessary, the Company will reduce such holdings.

Based on this policy and after examining the necessity of continuing to hold shares of Singapore Exchange Limited (SGX) that the Company owns, the Company reached a conclusion in March 2018 that holding shares of SGX is not an absolute necessity for continuing the cooperative relationship with SGX. As such, the Company decided to sell the shares of SGX in phases over approximately three years.

[For more information on sequential sales of the shares the Company owns]

<https://www.jpx.co.jp/english/corporate/news/news-releases/0010/b5b4pj0000022zaq-att/b5b4pj0000022zbm.pdf>

Currently, JPX does not own shares that fall under cross-shareholdings other than the shares of SGX.

Standards on exercise of voting rights

In exercising its voting rights, the Company takes into comprehensive consideration, among other matters, whether the agenda of general shareholders meetings align with the policy of cross-shareholdings and whether such agenda contributes to the enhancement of corporate value or the sustainable growth of each investee company. Currently, the shares of SGX are the only that the Company owns under the category of cross-shareholdings. However, as mentioned above, the Company decided to sell those shares after verifying the appropriateness of such holdings and will apply the same aforementioned considerations in exercising its voting rights pertaining to SGX shares until the completion of their sales.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

To ensure the appropriateness of transactions with directors and executive officers, with regard to competitive transactions or transactions involving a conflict of interest with directors and executive officers, important facts will be communicated in advance to the board of directors, in accordance with the Companies Act and the Company's board of directors rules, before the Company obtains the approval of the board of directors.

In the case of a related party transaction between the Company or its subsidiary and a major shareholder (except where the major shareholder is a trading participant, listed company, or other market user, and payment is to be made to the Company's subsidiary based on the terms stipulated in advance by the subsidiary), the board of directors or other appropriate body must discuss the rationality and appropriateness of the terms and conditions in consideration of the materiality of the amount, and then give its approval.

With regard to a transaction that is approved by the board of directors, progress will be regularly reported to the board of directors, and it will verify that the transaction does not harm the interests of the Company or the common interest of its shareholders.

In addition, the Company will regularly check for transactions between related parties and the Company.

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

The Company entrusts management of corporate pension funds to asset managers that have announced that they will comply with Japan's Stewardship Code. As such, the Company acknowledges that its responsibility as an asset owner is to appropriately monitor the activities of such asset managers. Therefore, the Company has assigned dedicated persons for appropriately monitoring such asset managers. Moreover, with the aim of improving the expertise of such dedicated persons, the Company ensures such persons take training courses offered by external entities, whereby the persons can acquire the knowledge necessary for fulfilling the role of an asset owner.

In addition, conflicts of interest that could arise between the corporate pension fund beneficiaries and the Company are also appropriately managed in monitoring the asset managers.

[Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure]

(i) Company objectives (e.g., corporate philosophy), business strategies, and business plans

<Company objectives (e.g., corporate philosophy)>

As described above in "1. Basic Views" of "I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, and Other Basic Information."

<Business strategies and business plans>

The Company announced its 3rd Medium-Term Management Plan for FY2019 to FY2021 on March 28, 2019.

[Medium-Term Management Plan]

<https://www.jpx.co.jp/english/corporate/investor-relations/management/mid-business-plan/index.html>

The Company formulated its 3rd Medium-Term Management Plan based upon a capital policy of supporting sustainable development and evolution of the market with constant investment while keeping balance between return to shareholders and fiscal robustness for stable management of the market.

Through these, the Company aims to enhance its corporate value over the medium to long term and provide appropriate shareholder returns.

(ii) Basic views and policies on corporate governance

As described above in "1. Basic Views" of "I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, and Other Basic Information."

(iii) Policies and procedures for determination of remuneration for senior management and directors by the board of directors

Please refer to "Remuneration for Directors/Executive Officers" under section II. 1. of this report.

(iv) Policies and procedures for appointment and removal of senior management and nomination of director and executive officer candidates by the board of directors

<Procedures for appointment and removal of directors and executive officers>

The Company is a company with a nomination committee and other committees. It has established a statutory Nomination Committee for the purpose of ensuring transparency, timeliness, and objectivity concerning appointment and removal of directors and executive officers.

The majority of the members of the Nomination Committee are independent outside directors, and the committee is chaired by an independent outside director. Appointment of candidates for and removal of directors, representative executive officers, representatives of subsidiaries, etc. are thoroughly deliberated by the committee; the appointment and removal of directors are put forth for approval at general shareholders meetings; and, the appointment and removal of executive officers are determined at board of directors meetings.

<Policy on appointment of candidates for and removal of directors>

In considering appointment of director candidates, the Nomination Committee sets forth the following three points as its basic policy. Based on such policy, the appointment of director candidates is put forth for approval at general shareholders meetings.

- (1) Have professional knowledge of the Company's business, abundant experience as a corporate manager, or have expertise in law, accounting, or finance
- (2) Have the character and insight to make fair judgment regarding the Company's business as a director
- (3) Do not have any health issues that will hinder the performance of duties as a director.

Likewise, if a director no longer satisfies the above points or if a director has committed an improper act, material breach of laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation, etc., the Company will consider putting forth a proposal to remove such director for approval at a general shareholders meeting.

In addition, the Company has in place a structure where the independent outside directors are from a wide variety of fields (directors, etc. of other listed companies, legal professionals, certified public accountants, academics, former government officials, and others) and attend board of directors meetings and other important meetings to contribute their expert knowledge and experience and participate in discussions, whereby the Company aims for the realization of the corporate philosophy.

The independence standards for the Company's independent outside directors are described in the Notice of the 17th Annual General Shareholders Meeting.

[Notices of Shareholders Meetings]

<https://www.jpx.co.jp/english/corporate/investor-relations/shareholders/meeting/index.html>

<Policy on appointment and removal of executive officers>

In considering appointment of candidates for executive officers, the Nomination Committee sets forth the following four points as its basic policy. Based on such policy, executive officer candidates are proposed for appointment to the board of director, and the board of directors then appoints executive officers based on said proposal.

- (1) Have professional knowledge of the Company's operations and excellent ability to make business judgments and execute business operations
- (2) Have outstanding ability for leadership, decision-making, foresight, and planning
- (3) Have the character and insight that are appropriate as an executive officer
- (4) Do not have any health issues that will hinder the performance of duties as an executive officer

Especially, for the executive officer who serves as the Representative Executive Officer and Group CEO, the board of directors appoints an individual who best matches the following description.

- (1) A person who respects the Company's corporate philosophy and is able to perform management at a high level in accordance with the corporate philosophy
- (2) A person who has the character and insight and is capable of taking appropriate action, to garner broad support and confidence from those who are related to the markets operated by JPX Group
- (3) A person who has a global perspective, has in-depth knowledge about Japanese society, the Japanese economy, and the markets operated by JPX Group and is able to demonstrate leadership regarding market users, market rules, and other matters.

Likewise, if an executive officer or the Representative Executive Officer, Group CEO of the Company no longer satisfies the above points or if such officer has committed an improper act, material breach of laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation, etc., the Company will consider putting forth a proposal to remove such executive officer for approval at a board of directors meeting.

In addition, the Nomination Committee, in conjunction with the board of directors, will continually examine and further improve the appropriateness of successor planning, including for the Representative Executive Officer and Group CEO of the Company.

(v) Explanations with respect to appointment and removal of senior management and appointment and nomination of individual director and executive officer candidates based on (iv) above by the board of directors

The reasons for nominating nine outside directors by the Nomination Committee, based on the above nomination policy, are described later in [Relationship with the Company (2)] under [Matters Related to Outside Directors] in "1. Organizational Composition and Operations" of "II Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision Making, Execution of Business, and Oversight".

Individual reasons for nominating the Company's directors other than outside directors and those for appointing the Company's executive officers are as stated in the "Notice of the 17th Annual General Shareholders Meeting".

[Notices of Shareholders Meetings]

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 Decision on the Scope of Matters Delegated to the Management and Disclosure of Summary]

The Company is a company with a nomination committee and other committees. As such, the Company's board of directors makes decisions primarily on matters left solely to the board of directors by laws and regulations, such as the basic management policy and the appointment of executive officers, for the purpose of ensuring swift and flexible decision making and strengthening oversight of persons who execute business. Decisions on business execution other than those above are delegated to the Representative Executive Officer and Group CEO and other executive officers.

[Principle 4.8 Effective Use of Independent Outside Directors]

Of the 14 directors currently serving the Company, nine are outside directors. All of the nine outside directors are deemed to have satisfied the independence standards for independent outside directors stipulated by the Company, and have been filed as independent directors with Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc.

[Supplementary Principle 4.8.1 Information Exchange and Shared Awareness among Independent Outside Directors]

[Supplementary Principle 4.8.2 Establishment of Frameworks for Communication and Cooperation by Independent Outside Directors]

The Company adopts a structure of a company with a nomination committee and other committees and appoints nine independent outside directors to strengthen management oversight and achieve efficient business operations.

The Company's independent outside directors actively share opinions at board of directors meetings and other meetings, and the Company is confident that there is effective corporate governance.

In March 2016, the Company established an Independent Outside Directors Committee as a corporate organ composed exclusively of its independent outside directors to allow them to exchange views and form consensus among themselves in order to better perform management oversight and further facilitate active discussions at board of directors meetings. The committee is expected to hold at least two meetings a year. For FY2018, on April 27, 2018, the Committee conducted a primary evaluation of the improvement measures presented by the management based on self-evaluations concerning the effectiveness of the board of directors by all directors and that of the Nomination Committee, Audit Committee, and Compensation Committee by each committee member (See [Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Disclosure of Summary of Analysis and Evaluation Results Concerning Effectiveness of Board of Directors]).

[Number of Independent Outside Directors Committee Meetings Held]

FY2016 – 3 (on April 28, 2016, October 28, 2016, and February 27, 2017)

FY2017 – 2 (on April 28, 2017 and October 30, 2017)

The Independent Outside Directors Committee appoints its chairperson, who convenes committee meetings and conducts meeting proceedings. The chairperson requests the management of the Company to attend committee meetings on an as-needed basis and feeds what was discussed or deliberated at committee meetings back to the chairperson of the board of directors as well as CEO and other executive officers, thereby promoting smooth communication among directors and executive officers.

[Principle 4.9 Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Outside Directors]

The independence standards and qualification for independent outside directors of the Company are described in the Notice of the 17th Annual General Shareholders Meeting.

[Notices of Shareholders Meetings]

<https://www.jpx.co.jp/english/corporate/investor-relations/shareholders/meeting/index.html>

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Determination of View on Appropriate Balance between Knowledge, Experience, and Skills of the Board of Directors as a Whole and Disclosure of Policy and Procedures for Appointment of Directors]

The Company's basic policy is to appoint directors who have expert knowledge and experience in a wide variety of areas so as to reflect opinions from diverse stakeholders in business management and market operations.

The size of the board of directors is limited to a maximum of 15 members so that it can fully exercise management oversight and ensure appropriate and efficient business operations.

Presently, the Company's board of directors is comprised of 14 members, including two female directors. Of the 14 directors, nine are independent outside directors.

The breakdown of the nine independent outside directors is indicated as below. Each of these directors has considerable experience and insight on their respective fields and contributes to a structure that allows for a multifaceted external perspective to be readily incorporated into the Company's management.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Concurrent Positions of Independent Outside Directors]

The significant concurrent positions of independent outside directors are described in the Notice of the 17th Annual General Shareholders Meeting.

[Notices of Shareholders Meetings]

<https://www.jpx.co.jp/english/corporate/investor-relations/shareholders/meeting/index.html>

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Disclosure of Summary of Analysis and Evaluation Results Concerning Effectiveness of Board of Directors]

<Evaluation process>

In order to analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the board of directors, the Nomination Committee, Compensation Committee, and Audit Committee meetings held (hereinafter collectively referred to as "board of directors meetings, etc.") in FY2017, the Company's board of directors conducted interviews and a survey involving all directors. After reviewing the contents and evaluations in the survey and interviews, the management, etc. discussed improvement measures. The Independent Outside Directors Committee, the corporate organ composed exclusively of independent outside directors, then conducted a primary evaluation of those improvement measures. In said primary evaluation, the committee mainly discussed the measures that needed further consideration.

The committee also reviewed progress on the improvement measures in response to the evaluation concerning the effectiveness of board of directors meetings, etc. in FY2016.

The chairperson of the committee directly presented the results of the primary evaluation to the chairperson of the board of directors and the Representative Executive Officer and Group CEO. In light of said results, the management, etc. reconsidered the improvement measures.

Thereafter, the board of directors reviewed the contents of the evaluation and the revised improvement measures presented by the management, etc. and finalized the matters related to said evaluation.

<Contents of the survey>

The survey primarily focused on the following matters (* indicates same perspectives applied to surveys on the Nomination Committee, Compensation Committee, and Audit Committee):

- Composition of directors*;
- Preparations and support system for attending board of directors meetings*;
- Effectiveness of discussions at board of directors meetings*;
- Communication with the management;
- Training for directors;
- Systems pertaining to risk management, compliance, and review;
- Adequacy of discussions concerning management strategies and related matters; and
- Appropriateness of oversight on conflicts of interest

<Summary of analysis, evaluation results, and improvement measures pertaining to effectiveness>

1. Progress on Improvement Measures in Response to Evaluation Results of Effectiveness for FY2016

The Independent Outside Directors Committee held a meeting in April 2018 to review improvement measures in response to the evaluation concerning the effectiveness of board of directors meetings, etc. in FY2016 and found that the improvement measures were being steadily implemented.

(For the evaluation results for FY 2016, please refer to "Corporate Governance Report" updated on June 16, 2017.)

[Corporate Governance Report (updated on June 16, 2017)]

<http://www2.tse.or.jp/disc/86970/140120170612404785.pdf>

2. Evaluation Results of Effectiveness for FY2017 and Improvement Measures in Response thereto

Interviews and survey revealed that the effectiveness improved in FY2017 as compared to FY2016. In particular, all outside directors indicated that board members can frankly deliver opinions and hold discussions. On the other hand, it was pointed out that improvements will be necessary from the following three points of views.

(1) Discussion on corporate management strategies

- In developing the 3rd Medium-Term Management Plan (for the period from April 2019 to March 2022), medium- to long-term management strategies and growth strategies should be discussed free from existing ways of thinking.

(2) Functioning, etc. of statutory committees

- The Company should revise the scope of items to be handled by the Nomination Committee so as to make it more appropriate, and the committee should be chaired by an outside director.
- Agendas, meeting frequency, meeting dates, etc. for the Audit Committee should be reviewed.

Based on these points, the Company's management, etc. have developed improvement measures and the board of directors has confirmed that the management, etc. will implement the measures appropriately.

3. Future Schedule for Evaluation of Effectiveness

The Company conducts evaluation on the effectiveness of the board of directors during the period between March and May every year. Based on the evaluation results of the effectiveness for FY2017, with respect to discussion on corporate management strategies for which improvements are deemed necessary, the Company will discuss corporate management strategies and growth strategies from a medium- to long-term perspective in the 3rd Medium-Term Management Plan to be formulated in the current fiscal year. Therefore, the Company will start the effectiveness evaluation for FY2018 after formulating and publishing the 3rd Medium-Term Management Plan.

June 2019: Conduct Survey, etc.

July & August 2019: Formulate improvement measures based on results of survey, etc. and the primary evaluation on the improvement measures by the Independent Outside Directors Committee

September 2019: Publish the overview of the evaluation results and improvement measures

Effectiveness evaluations from FY2019 onwards are scheduled to be conducted on the same timeline as above to allow for formulation of improvement measures based on evaluation results and primary evaluation on improvement measures by the Independent Outside Directors Committee to be conducted under the new board of directors regime formed after the annual general shareholders meeting held in June.

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Disclosure of Training Policy for Directors and Statutory Auditors]

<Training Policy for Outside Directors>

The Company's outside directors include directors, etc. of other listed companies, a legal professional, a certified public accountant, an academic, and former government officials. Each of them has sufficient knowledge about management and corporate governance due to their expert knowledge and experience.

Therefore, the Company focuses on helping outside directors deepen their understanding of the business of JPX Group. When outside directors assume office, the Company provides them with explanations regarding the business of JPX Group, related laws, regulations, and rules, and other necessary matters by using rule books, brochures, and other material. It also organizes visits to company offices and system centers.

After assuming office, the Company regularly provides reports on operations and financial status to outside directors. It also keeps outside directors up-to-date on developments by providing information regarding rule revisions and other matters where necessary so that they are able to fully perform their expected roles to the fullest.

In light of the increasing complexity of the exchange business, since 2015, the Company has been holding lunch workshops for directors to allow them to engage in discussions while keeping up-to-date on knowledge and information regarding the exchange business. In addition, since 2016, the Company has launched training programs for JPX directors, etc. and has been providing directors with opportunities to share opinions with external experts on themes such as global financial trends, risk management, and fintech.

<Training Policy for Executive Officers>

To allow executive officers (shikkoyaku and shikkoyakuin) of JPX Group to keep up-to-date on expert knowledge necessary for business execution, the Company provides appropriate opportunities for them to participate in training programs for JPX directors, etc. that target outside directors.

[Principle 5.1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

The Company aims to continuously increase its corporate value through the development of fair, transparent, and convenient markets. The Company is aware that to achieve this, it is important to listen to the voices of the different stakeholders. The Company will thus provide opportunities for active dialogue with shareholders and investors to build a long-term relationship of trust.

Dialogue with shareholders and investors are overseen by the executive officer in charge of IR. Actual meetings will take place with a director, executive officer, or the department in charge of IR, depending on the purpose of the meeting.

To raise the effectiveness of dialogue, the department in charge of IR will ensure that it coordinates closely to share information with other corporate divisions, including finance, corporate strategy, and general administration, as well as other divisions of JPX Group, including financial instruments exchange operators that are subsidiaries of the Company.

To facilitate constructive dialogue, the Company will undertake the following:

- Issue integrated reports to deepen the understanding of the Company over the medium to long term horizon;
- Hold briefing sessions, etc., for individual investors;
- Hold briefing sessions on financial results for institutional investors and visit institutional investors;
- Provide materials on financial results and briefing sessions, etc., on the website; and
- Provide information on the financial instruments market as business-related statistics on the website or by other means.

Opinions and other feedback obtained through dialogue will be reported regularly to the management and the board of directors so that it can serve as reference in business judgment.

Company information will be disclosed in accordance with the separately stipulated "Disclosure Policy," in a speedy, accurate, and fair manner. In particular, the Company maintains a strong awareness that acts in violation of the regulations on insider trading would result in significant damage to the credibility of the financial instruments market, and it ensures that it will appropriately manage information to prevent information leakage and other similar incidents.

[Auditing Structure]

Appointment of Directors and/or Staff to Support the Audit Committee	Appointed
--	-----------

Matters Related to the Independence of Such Directors and/or Staff from Executive Officers (Shikkoyaku)

JPX has an Audit Committee Office to provide assistance to the duties of the Audit Committee (the office is comprised of an office director and four other employees, who serve concurrently in the auditor offices of subsidiaries as needed). Matters including the employment, transfer, evaluation, and discipline of Audit Committee Office staff require prior approval from an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee, and care is taken to prevent any executive officer from undermining the independence of the office.

Cooperation among Audit Committee, Accounting Auditor, and Internal Audit Departments

Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC is engaged as the accounting auditor for JPX. The Audit Committee strives to allow audits to be conducted in an efficient manner by receiving audit reports, plans, and results from the accounting auditor and sharing information on a regular basis.

JPX has also established an Internal Auditing Office that reports directly to the CEO and COO as an internal auditing department. The Audit Committee cooperates flexibly by means such as receiving plans for and progress of internal audit on a regular basis, and requesting implementation of measures such as investigations where necessary.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

JPX is a company with a nomination committee and other committees, which includes the statutory "Compensation Committee" that aims to secure transparency and objectivity of remuneration of the Company's directors and executive officers.

The remuneration for directors and executive officers is determined by the Compensation Committee, a majority of whose members are independent outside directors and which is chaired by an independent outside director.

[Directors (excluding those who serve concurrently as executive officers)]

In light of their role and independency, the Company pays them only a basic salary.

[Executive officers]

The remuneration of executive officers is comprised of (1) basic salary, (2) bonus, and (3) stock compensation so that it can effectively work as an incentive for sound management that contributes to not only short-term, but also medium- to long-term sustainable enhancement of corporate value.

(1) Basic salary

- Amount paid as consideration for daily business execution and participation in management, which is commensurate with the executive officer's position and duties

(2) Bonus

- Amount determined based on quantitative factors with consolidated net income as an indicator

- Amount determined based on qualitative factors with the state of achievement of the business plan, etc. as indicators

(3) Stock compensation

- Amount paid as incentives for contributing to medium- to long-term enhancement of corporate value, which is commensurate with the executive officer's position and duties

[Supporting System for Outside Directors]

The General Administration Department assists outside directors. The General Administration Department provides prior explanation on the content of proposals put forth at board of director meetings to outside directors to enable them to engage in constructive discussions during meetings. In addition, JPX has an Audit Committee Office comprised of staff dedicated to providing assistance to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee Office provides prior explanation on the content of proposals put forth at board of director meetings to Audit Committee members who are outside directors.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

JPX clearly segregates the management monitoring/supervisory function and the business execution function and adopts the company with a nomination committee and other committees structure to strengthen oversight and raise the transparency of management. Oversight is centered on the JPX board of directors, which is comprised of 14 members, including two female directors. To raise the transparency of management and increase accountability, as well as enhance the function of supervising appropriateness of business execution, the majority of the board is made up of outside directors.

The breakdown of the nine outside directors is described in "[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Determination of View on Appropriate Balance between Knowledge, Experience, and Skills of the Board of Directors as a Whole and Disclosure of Policy and Procedures for Appointment of Directors]". These directors each have considerable experience and insight on their various fields and contribute to a structure that allows for a multifaceted external perspective to be readily incorporated into JPX management. JPX has concluded, with each of the nine outside directors, a limited liability agreement with the liability limit set at the minimum amount set forth by laws and regulations. Meetings of the board of directors are generally held on a regular basis. The board of directors makes decisions on the basic management policy and important management matters, and supervises business execution by executive officers.

JPX has established a statutory Nomination Committee and a statutory Compensation Committee for the purpose of ensuring transparency and objectivity in the appointment/removal and remuneration of its directors and executive officers. The majority of the members of each committee are outside directors, and each committee is chaired by an outside director. The appointment/removal of directors and executive officers are thoroughly deliberated and determined by the Nomination Committee with the appointment/removal of directors then put forth for approval at general shareholders meetings, and the remuneration of directors and executive officers is determined by the Compensation Committee.

JPX also has a statutory Audit Committee, which performs the audit function. It is comprised of five directors (including one full-time Audit Committee member), of which four, including a certified public accountant, are outside directors. Audit Committee meetings are generally held on a regular basis, and an Audit Committee Office has been established to support the committee. Directors appointed to the Audit Committee (full-time Audit Committee members) are required to conduct audit such that business execution is in compliance with laws and regulations by means such as attending important meetings including those of the board of directors and the board of executive officers. The committee collaborates with the accounting auditor, the internal auditing office, and statutory auditors of subsidiaries among others to raise the effectiveness of accounting and operational audits. The Audit Committee verifies the internal control system and monitors its application, based on the audit plan and division of roles that it determines, while collaborating closely with the accounting auditor, internal auditing office, and the statutory auditors of subsidiaries, etc., as to conduct audit in an efficient manner.

Furthermore, JPX has established a Risk Policy Committee for the purpose of contributing to the development of appropriate risk management systems for JPX Group, which involves the board of directors to provide assistance in the oversight of such systems. The committee is comprised of five members in total, including four directors and one executive officer. Three of the four directors are outside directors. The Risk Policy Committee shall discuss the appropriate development and implementation of risk management at JPX Group and make recommendations on risk to the board of directors

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

JPX acknowledges the need to further increase accountability to shareholders and other stakeholders. We also seek to further enhance corporate governance by clearly segregating the management monitoring/supervisory function and the business execution function, which would contribute toward strengthening oversight and raising the transparency of management. As such, JPX adopts the structure of a company with a nomination committee and other committees.

The board of directors is composed of a majority of outside directors to enhance the transparency and accountability of the management and enhance the function of supervising appropriateness of the business execution.

III. Implementation of Measures for Shareholders and Other Stakeholders

1. Measures to Vitalize the General Shareholders Meeting and Smooth Exercise of Voting Rights

	Supplementary Explanations
Early Notification of General Shareholders Meeting	The notice of the meeting is sent about three weeks prior to the meeting. In addition, the notice is posted on the JPX website about four weeks prior to the meeting.
Scheduling Annual General Shareholders Meeting Avoiding the Peak Day	The annual general shareholders meeting is held about one week before the peak day.
Allowing Electronic Exercise of Voting Rights	Voting rights may be exercised by electronic means via the administrator of our shareholder register.
Participation in Electronic Voting Platform	Voting rights may be exercised via the electronic voting website of the "electronic voting platform for institutional investors".
Providing Convocation Notice in English (Fully or Partially)	To create an environment that is more conducive for voting rights exercise, we prepare English versions of convocation notices, which are provided to overseas shareholders via the "Institutional Investor Voting Platform," in addition to being published on our website.

2. IR Activities

Other	We strive to prepare business reports, annual reports, and other supplementary explanatory material on earnings results which are easy to understand.

3. Measures to Ensure Due Respect for Stakeholders

	Supplementary Explanations
Internal Rules Stipulated for Respecting the Position of Stakeholders	As a financial instruments exchange holding company, through the management of subsidiary financial instruments exchanges and a subsidiary self-regulatory organization, we conduct activities to build social credibility by constructing an efficient, convenient market that is fair and reliable. The charter of corporate behavior at JPX is aimed at developing a harmonious relationship with society and clarifying the social responsibilities of JPX as an open company. It lays out the basic policies of JPX for behavior as a corporation from both a moral and ethical standpoint derived from universal values. In line with the spirit of the charter, we will continue to fulfill our social mission by carrying out sensible, fair and transparent corporate activities. Moving forward, we will observe and enforce the charter to contribute to society and pursue sustainable development as a corporation.
Implementation of Environmental Activities, CSR Activities, etc.	Based on the fundamental aspect of securing the operations of financial instruments exchanges as public infrastructure, our basic stance toward CSR activities involves maintaining good relations with shareholders and other stakeholders. This specifically entails pursuing CSR activities by turning ideas laid out in the JPX charter of corporate behavior into action. Tree-planting is also carried out as part of our environmental preservation activities.
Other	JPX launched its work reform program in FY2016, undertaking various initiatives to contribute to work efficiency and productivity, including offering employees greater flexibility in their working styles. Specifically, JPX offers a flex-time system and a work-from-home system, which together free employees from time and geographical restrictions, and provides employees with seminars by experts to encourage employees to identify with efforts to reform working styles. In addition to the above, the Company has enhanced systems and programs that support employees in balancing diverse life styles and work from the following viewpoints: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Provide an environment where employees with various time constraints can play an active role in the workplaces - Promote a working environment that will accommodate working styles in line with diverse values and life styles so as to encourage motivation for work. Specifically, the Company is working to develop a pleasant working environment in which employees who have time constraints due to childcare, etc. can take best advantage of their capabilities. In FY2018, the Company also introduced a system that supports employees suffering from diseases such as cancer, so that they can receive medical treatment without giving up their jobs with peace of mind. [Major systems and initiatives] <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Childcare/nursing care leave that surpasses legal requirements - Shortened working hours for balancing work and childcare/nursing care/treatment of diseases such as cancer - Paid time off for childcare, medical treatment, and/nursing care - Time off available in hourly slot for child nursing, nursing care, and medical treatment - Subsidies for extended day care, hospital childcare, etc. as well as economic support for medical treatment expenses - Drafting of guides on balancing work and childcare, nursing care, or medical treatment of diseases such as cancer" - Obtainment of "Kurumin Authorization" (FY2016) To promote the empowerment of women in the workplace, in addition to the above initiatives, JPX encourages female staff to identify with empowerment efforts by providing career training programs for women and opportunities to network with female employees of other companies. Through these initiatives, JPX aims to increase the ratio of women in managerial or higher level positions as it pursues its policy of cultivating and securing highly capable human resources for director and executive roles.

IV. Matters Related to the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development

Our basic policy on building internal control systems is as described below.

1. Matters regarding Board Members and Employees that Support the JPX Audit Committee in Execution of Duties

In order to set forth matters regarding employees that support the Audit Committee in the execution of its duties, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Employees that Support the Audit Committee in Execution of Duties", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

- (1) Employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office shall support the Audit Committee in the execution of its duties and follow instructions of the Audit Committee.
- (2) At least 4 employees, including an office director, shall be assigned to the Audit Committee Office.

2. Matters regarding Independence of Board Members and Employees that Support the JPX Audit Committee in Execution of Duties from JPX Executive Officers

In order to ensure the independence of employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Employees that Support the Audit Committee in Execution of Duties", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

- (1) JPX shall obtain consent from the Audit Committee (in cases where the committee has designated a specific Audit Committee member, it shall be such member) in advance regarding employment, personnel transfer, employee evaluation, salary, and disciplinary punishment of employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office.
- (2) Executive officers and employees shall be careful not to undermine the independence of employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office by unduly restricting the execution of such employees' duties.

3. Matters regarding Ensuring the Effectiveness of Instructions by the JPX Audit Committee to Board Members and Employees that Support the Audit Committee in Execution of Duties

In order to ensure the effectiveness of the instructions of the Audit Committee given to employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Employees that Support the Audit Committee in Execution of Duties", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

- (1) Employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office shall support the Audit Committee in executing its duties, and follow the instructions of the Audit Committee.
- (2) The director of the Audit Committee Office shall assist the Audit Committee in executing its duties and, for the purpose of smooth audits by the Audit Committee, shall oversee operations and take overall command of other employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office.

4. Frameworks for Reporting to the JPX Audit Committee, including Those Specified below

- (1) Frameworks for reporting to the Audit Committee, by JPX board members (excluding Audit Committee members), executive officers, and employees and for other reporting to the JPX Audit Committee

In order to develop a framework for reporting to the Audit Committee, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Reports to the Audit Committee, etc.", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

- a. When a board member (excluding Audit Committee members), executive officer, or employee receives a request for a report on execution of duties from the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee, such board member, executive officer, or employee shall promptly make an appropriate report.
 - b. When an executive officer or employee discovers a matter that may have material effect on the business or financial condition of JPX, its subsidiaries, or affiliated companies, such executive officer or employee must immediately report the details of such matter to the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee.
- (2) Framework for reporting to the JPX Audit Committee by a JPX subsidiary board member, auditor, executive officer, other person equivalent thereto, and employee as well as a person who has received a report from such board member, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "Subsidiary Board Member, etc.")

In order to develop a framework for reporting to the Audit Committee, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Reporting to the Audit Committee, etc.", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

 - a. When a Subsidiary Board Member, etc., JPX executive officer, or JPX employee receives a request for report on matters regarding the subsidiaries from the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee, such Subsidiary Board Member, etc. shall promptly make an appropriate report.
 - b. When a Subsidiary Board Member, etc., JPX executive officer, or JPX employee discovers a matter that may have material effect on the business or financial condition of any of the subsidiaries, such Subsidiary Board Member, etc. must immediately report the details of such matter to the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee.
5. Frameworks for Ensuring that the Person who Made a Report in the above 4 Shall Not be Subject to Any Unfavorable Treatment for Reason of Having Made Such Report

In order to establish a framework for ensuring that a person who made a report to the Audit Committee shall not be subject to unfavorable treatment for reason of having made such report, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Reporting to the Audit Committee, etc.", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

 - (1) A person who made a report to the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee shall not be subject to unfavorable treatment by JPX, executive officers, employees, etc. for reason of having made such report.
 - (2) JPX, executive officers, employees, etc. must not disadvantage a person who made such report to the Audit Committee or the Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee for reason of having made such report.
6. Matter regarding the Policy for Handling Expenses or Payables in relation to Execution of Duties of JPX Audit Committee Members (limited to those related to the Execution of Duties of the Audit Committee), such as Procedures for Advance Payment or Reimbursement in relation to Execution of Such Duties

With respect to the policy for handling expenses or payables in relation to the execution of duties of Audit Committee members, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Reporting to the Audit Committee, etc.", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

 - (1) When the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member claims expenses necessary for activities such as requesting advice from or entrusting investigation, appraisal, and other work to an attorney-at-law, certified public accountant, and other outside experts for the purpose of Audit Committee members or the Audit Committee that conduct audits, the executive officer and employee may not refuse such claims unless the claimed expenses are deemed unnecessary for the execution of duties of Audit Committee members or the Audit Committee.
 - (2) The provisions of the preceding item shall be applied to expenses for the execution of duties of the Audit Committee, including advance payment of retainer fees, and reimbursement of ex-post facto expenses, etc.
7. Frameworks to Ensure Effectiveness of JPX Audit Committee Audits

In order to ensure the effectiveness of audits by the Audit Committee, JPX shall establish "Rules regarding Reporting to the Audit Committee, etc.", including the following details, as company rules, and apply such rules appropriately.

 - (1) The representative executive officer shall regularly meet with the Audit Committee or an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee and exchange opinions regarding management policies, issues JPX should deal with, material risks involving JPX, the audit environment of the Audit Committee, other important audit issues, etc.

- (2) When an Audit Committee member designated by the Audit Committee delivers an opinion or requests explanation at the meeting of the board of executive officers or other important meetings, executive officers and employees shall respond to such actions appropriately in good faith.

8. Frameworks to Ensure that Execution of Duties of JPX Executive Officers and Employees is in Compliance with Laws, Regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation

JPX shall conduct operations in accordance with the division of duties and authority prescribed in company rules and shall ensure that the execution of duties is in compliance with laws, regulations, and the articles of incorporation.

A compliance program shall be implemented with the following measures.

- (1) JPX shall establish and observe company compliance rules (including those related to information management), such as the "Charter of Corporate Behavior," which lays out universal values from the perspective of corporate ethics for executive officers and employees, and the employee code of conduct, which is a guideline for employee conduct.
- (2) JPX shall appoint a compliance executive officer (position assumed by the CEO) and an officer in charge of compliance (executive officer in charge of general administration), and establish a secretariat for operations related to compliance (within the general administration department) as an internal compliance system.
- (3) JPX shall establish and operate a compliance hotline as a whistleblowing system.
- (4) JPX shall continuously conduct awareness and educational activities, such as holding liaison meetings for staff responsible for compliance, distributing compliance information over the intranet, and implementing in-house training through e-learning.

JPX shall enact the following measures based on the "Charter of Corporate Behavior" toward the exclusion of anti-social forces.

- (1) JPX shall take a firm stance against anti-social forces, which threaten public order and safety, and work to stop and prevent any relationship with such entities.
- (2) JPX shall work to prevent the intervention of anti-social forces in the financial instruments markets and create sound and fair markets.

An internal auditing office shall be established under the direct control of the CEO and COO, and it shall conduct internal audits.

9. Framework regarding Information Storage and Management related to Execution of Duties of Executive Officers

JPX shall set forth provisions regarding the handling of the storage of documents pertaining to the execution of duties of executive officers, such as minutes of the board of executive officers meetings, in the information security policy standards clarified in the company rules.

10. Rules and Other Frameworks regarding JPX Loss Risk Management

JPX shall employ a business operation framework in accordance with the division of duties and authority clarified in the company rules, and said framework shall be based on the idea that board members, executive officers, and employees shall responsibly conduct business and operations with an awareness of risk management in accordance with their own scope of duties and authority.

With a view to prevent risks from actually happening, JPX shall be aware of risks for the JPX corporate group, which is comprised of JPX and its subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to as "JPX group companies"), and prepare and manage appropriate measures against such risks. In addition, in order to develop a framework for regularly reporting such risks and measures, JPX shall establish a Risk Policy Committee, with an outside director acting as the chair and a Risk Management Committee with the CEO acting as the chair, and shall establish a "Risk Management Policy", including the following details, and implement such policy appropriately.

- (1) The Risk Policy Committee shall discuss matters concerning important risk management in JPX group companies. Discussions shall be based on a comprehensive risk management framework specified in the "Risk Management Policy". The committee shall then make suggestions and submit reports on the discussion results to the board of directors.
- (2) The Risk Management Committee shall first obtain a comprehensive understanding of the status of day-to-day risk management at JPX group companies and circumstances where risks are identified or are likely to be so, then discuss measures for a prompt solution and so forth, and lastly report the progress to the board of directors.

Particularly, JPX shall maintain a strong awareness of its core responsibilities as a market operator to stably provide opportunities for market users to trade with confidence. Furthermore, regarding risks related to the stable operation of systems, JPX will enact the required and appropriate measures in their development and operation frameworks, such as implementing standardized development methods and adequate operational tests, preparing detailed operational manuals and complying with such, and maintaining thorough quality control pertaining to development and operations via the establishment of dedicated departments or divisions.

Moreover, in preparation for situations where the continued operation of the market becomes difficult due to natural disasters, terrorist acts, etc., JPX shall establish a "Business Continuity Plan" to minimize the impact on related parties and provide appropriate measures through predetermined frameworks and procedures necessary for resuming operations as quickly as possible.

Additionally, in consideration of the importance of self-regulatory functions to JPX group companies as a market operator and the general public's high expectations for such functions, JPX shall establish measures to maintain fairness, such as organizational measures to ensure the independence of self-regulatory operations with regard to the risks pertaining to the proper function of self-regulatory operations (various risks, including reputation risks, in cases where self-regulatory operations are not carried out appropriately). At the same time, by proactively investing management resources, JPX will pursue improvements to the quality of self-regulatory operations through such means as preparing appropriate operational manuals and complying with such, as well as enhancing educational training in order to raise the quality of self-regulatory operations.

11. Frameworks to Ensure Efficient Execution of JPX Executive Officer Duties

JPX shall establish a framework for the management of operations in accordance with the division of duties and authority clarified in the company rules so as to specialize and enhance operations through a system of divided labor. Within this framework, JPX shall allow authority to be delegated according to its importance and improve the mobility of decision-making procedures.

JPX shall formulate medium-term management and annual budget plans with the appropriate combination of top-down management and bottom-up approach from the departmental level, etc. and also execute operations efficiently through appropriate progress management.

12. Frameworks to Ensure Proper Operations by the Corporate Group Comprised of JPX, the Parent Company, and its Subsidiaries

- (1) Framework for reporting the execution of duties of board members, executive officers, and persons equivalent thereto of JPX subsidiaries (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Subsidiary Board Member, etc.") to JPX

JPX shall conduct business management of its subsidiaries based on business management agreements or request various reports based on "Affiliated Company Management Rules."

- (2) Frameworks including rules regarding management of risk of losses that may be incurred by JPX subsidiaries

JPX shall conduct business management of its subsidiaries based on business management agreements, or request them to report the state of risk management based on "Affiliated Company Management Rules" and provide advice, etc. on an as-needed basis.

- (3) Framework for ensuring efficient execution of duties by JPX Subsidiary Board Member, etc.

JPX shall achieve efficient execution of duties at its subsidiaries based on business management agreements or "Affiliated Company Management Rules" by appropriately managing and supporting them in accordance with their respective corporate positioning and scale.

- (4) Framework for ensuring that the execution of duties by JPX subsidiary board members, etc. and employees is in compliance with laws, regulations, and the articles of incorporation

JPX shall continuously conduct awareness and educational activities, such as holding liaison meetings with staff responsible for compliance at JPX group companies and disseminating information on compliance.

JPX shall conduct business management of its subsidiaries based on business management agreements, or request them to establish a compliance hotline as a whistleblowing system based on "Affiliated Company Management Rules" and provide advice, etc. on an as-needed basis.

JPX shall make the JPX internal auditing office conduct internal audit on its subsidiaries or request reports on the results of internal audits by the subsidiaries based on business management agreements or "Affiliated Company Management Rules," and provide advice, etc. on an as-needed basis.

- (5) Other Frameworks to Ensure Proper Operations within the Corporate Group Comprised of JPX, the Parent Company, and its Subsidiaries

JPX shall establish the "Charter of Corporate Behavior", which lays out universal values from the perspective of corporate ethics for executive officers and employees of JPX group companies.

2. Fundamental Approach to Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and State of Related Efforts

(1) Fundamental approach

<Basic policy of Japan Exchange Group on exclusion of anti-social forces >

Based on the JPX Code of Corporate Conduct, we will take a firm stance against anti-social forces which threaten public order and safety, and work to cut off all relations with such entities, and will work to prevent the intervention of anti-social forces in the financial instruments market to create sound and fair markets. Our basic policy on the exclusion of anti-social forces is set forth as below.

1. We will make efforts as an organization to exclude anti-social forces.
2. We will cut off all transactional and other relations with anti-social forces. In the event where such relations were revealed after the event, we will take necessary measures such as terminating contracts with immediate effect.
3. We will cooperate with the police, attorneys-at-law, and institutions that conduct activities related to the elimination of anti-social forces and strive to eliminate anti-social forces.
4. We will take necessary measures to ensure the safety of our directors, auditors, executive officers, and employees.

(2) State of related efforts

The above basic policy on elimination of anti-social forces formulated by JPX is also partially incorporated into our code of corporate conduct and our basic policy on building internal control systems, which is required by the Companies Act.

In the course of our daily operations, we prepare manuals and other documents on response to anti-social forces, conduct activities to spread knowledge among persons in charge, gather and manage information related to anti-social forces, and conduct investigations on related entities as necessary. With regard to our clients, we take measures such as requiring them to conclude agreements that specify the termination of contracts, etc. in the event where the client is found to have ties to anti-social forces. These measures are part of our efforts aimed at preventing the influence of anti-social forces in JPX business activities and early detection.

JPX also strives to strengthen its cooperation with external institutions, such as law enforcement organs and legal professionals, and continue improving our system to enable us to respond appropriately when the need arises.

2. Other Matters Concerning Corporate Governance System

The Financial Instruments and Exchange Act implemented on September 30, 2007 established a framework to enhance the independence of an organization that is responsible for the self-regulatory function of a financial instruments exchange. Following the enforcement of the Act, Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. swiftly established Tokyo Stock Exchange Regulation as a self-regulatory organization under the Act. The Act also stipulates that highly independent outside governors should make up the majority of governors of the self-regulatory organization and that the president should be appointed from amongst such outside governors.

JPX subsidiaries Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. and Osaka Exchange, Inc. entrust self-regulatory work (meaning matters pertaining to market surveillance, participant examinations and inspections, listing examination, and delisting) to Japan Exchange Regulation.

Through such measures, we will strive to raise the independence of the self-regulatory functions of JPX Group and prevent conflicts of interest between JPX as a corporation and market fairness.
