Audio Equipment

Net Sales/Revenue and Operating Income/Core Operating Profit

Net Sales/Revenue

FY2019.3 AV products faced headwinds, but PA equipment sales drove growth

- Sales of AV products were down year-on-year due to delays in responding to changes in demand
- PA equipment sales increased year-on-year in all regions, and audio and engineering installation sales were also robust
- Although network equipment sold briskly, overall ICT device sales declined year-on-year due to the impact of lower OEM product sales

FY2020.3 Expansion projected due to growth in PA equipment category and rebounding revenue of AV products

- AV product revenue is expected to rally due to MusicCast sales, customer interface reinforcement, and the launch of new products
- In the PA equipment category, new products for musical instrument stores will be launched, and double-digit growth is anticipated in North America and emerging markets
- In the ICT category, although network equipment revenue is anticipated to grow, lower OEM product revenue is expected

FY2019.3

- Electronic device sales declined year-on-year due to a fall in amusement equipment sales and slowing sales to China
- In the factory automation equipment category, sales of precision machinery and leak testers grew

FY2020.3

- In the electronic device category, revenue of in-vehicle communication modules and thermoelectric devices are projected to rise
- A temporary decline in profitability is predicted due to deteriorating market conditions for electronic devices and forward investment in a shift towards the in-vehicle device domain
